MINNESOTA AND MAINE PRIMARIES

Sen. Hale of Maine Seeks Re-nomination by Republicans at Polls Today

Women Candidates Numerous in Minnesota—Kellogg Has Two Opponents

PORTLAND, Me., June 19.—United States Senator Frederick Hale today sought re-nomination by the republicans at the Maine state primaries. Opposed to him were former Congressman Frank E. Gurnsey and former State Senator Howard Davies.

Senator Hale left the campaigning to his friends, contenting himself with brief statements to the effect that he is satisfied to stand on the record of his first term and that he had sought to serve the state as a whole.

Mr. Gurnsey who was defeated for the nomination six years ago by Senator Fernald, then governor, by 500 votes, has emphasized the geographical issue. He has pointed out that Senators Hale and Fernald both live in the western part of the state and has contended that eastern Maine ought to have a senator. Mr. Davies is known as the labor union candidate.

Governor Percival W. Baxter, republican, was a candidate for re-nomination and was opposed by John P. Deering, Leon F. Higgins.

Women voted for the first time in a state primary and for the first time they were candidates for various offices. They had previously voted in the state election of September, 1920, and in a special congressional primary in the Third District last March.

In Minnesota
ST. PAUL, Minn., June 19.—Minnesota voters went to the polls today to nominate party candidates for the United States senatorship, congress and state offices.

Mrs. Anna Dickie Olson, of Cloquet, Minn., endorsed by the democratic state convention, is contesting with two men for the democratic senatorial nomination and Senator Frank B. Kellogg, an avowed supporter of the national administration, had two opponents.

In the republican congressional fight in the Third District, Representative Charles F. Davis, a member of the national house since 1903, has active opposition in Reuben Thoren, of Stillwater, who has the endorsement of the district convention.

Ernest Lundeen of Minneapolis, former congressman, and Richard Titus, Minneapolis, are opposing Senator Kellogg.

Mrs. Lillian Cox Gault, mayor of St. Peter, has no opposition for the democratic congressional nomination in the third district. Margaret M. Kellar, for the republican secretary of state nomination in opposition to Mike Holm, incumbent, and Susie W. Stageberg, for the same office, and Eliza Evans Deming, for auditor, the last two named on the Farmer-Labor ticket, are other women in the election. This year the former non-partisan league candidates were under the banner of the Farmer-Labor party, whose state is without a contest today.

SUN CARRIER WINS BICYCLE
The happy winner of the Crown bicycle in the recent contest conducted by the management of the Strand theatre, is Joseph Mahan, of 5 Court avenue, who secured a total of some 2000 votes. He is a carrier of "The Sun" and promises to make good use of his new possession.

LECTURED ON THE STUDY OF BIRDS

Under the auspices of the children's department of the city library, E. H. Forbush, state ornithologist, gave an interesting and instructive lecture on the study of birds last Saturday morning.

Major speaker was introduced by Mayor Brown and to illustrate his topic, Mr. Forbush showed a number of lantern slides, particularly adapted to children.

There were many older people present also to enjoy the talk on the habits, the food and the care of birds. Miss Eloise B. Hills of the children's department was in charge.

TO PROSECUTE WALTER WARD

John E. Mack, Guardian of Baby Guy Stillman Retained by State

Aided in Fight That Brought Thaw Back From Sherbrooke, Canada

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., June 19.—John E. Mack of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., guardian of Baby Guy Stillman, has been retained to prosecute Walter S. Ward, wealthy baker's son, who he faces a jury on a charge of first degree murder for the slaying of Clarence Peters, former sailor.

Mr. Weeks will not prosecute the wealthy young baker because of his appearance as a witness in the case, having testified before the grand jury. Mr. Mack has twice been district attorney of Dutchess county and aided in the fight that brought Harry K. Thaw back from Sherbrooke, Canada.

Special Hearing Today
WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., June 19.—Interest in the case of Walter S. Ward, in jail here under indictment for the murder of Clarence Peters, continued today in the special hearing before Supreme Court Justice Moerschauer of charges of conspiracy to prevent investigation of the mysterious tragedy of George S. Ward, father of the prisoner, is in Cleveland and subpoena servers have been unable to reach him. If Justice Moerschauer finds a conspiracy exists he can issue a warrant compelling Ward's father to appear for examination regarding the blackmail by young George to have caused the pistol battle resulting in Peters' death.

MICHAEL A. FLEMMING HONORED BY FRIENDS

Michael A. Flemming, formerly of this city, but now holding a very responsible position at the Raritan Arsenal, Metuchen, N. J., who is to be married in this city next Wednesday, was tendered a reception at the Sag-haya Camp, Tynghboro, yesterday by about 40 local young men.

A feature of the affair was the presentation of a purse of gold to the groom-to-be, with John A. Miskell doing the honors. Mr. Miskell's speech was replete with good advice and witty remarks. His effort brought many smiles to the faces of the recipient and the guests. Mr. Flemming responded in a most fitting manner, thanking his former associates and friends for their gift and good wishes.

An informal musical program was carried out. Ernest Gauthier and his jazz band gave several splendid numbers. Others to contribute to the musical program were Edward Donohue, John Hall, Thomas Delmore and William Madden.

An excellent turkey dinner was served under the direction of John Stapleton, assisted by William Walsh and Dennis Cronin. When the party broke up, all pronounced the affair one of the most enjoyable on record and the honored one was showered with wishes for a happy and prosperous married life.

M'CORMICK IMPROVING

Underwent Operation to Regain Youth, at Chicago Hospital

CHICAGO, June 19.—The veil of mystery drawn about an operation performed last Monday upon Harold F. McCormick, chairman of the executive board of the International Harvester Co., remained as impenetrable last night as it was 48 hours before when word of Mr. McCormick's illness first became public.

That Mr. McCormick is making satisfactory progress and that the operation was a success was indicated by a bulletin issued yesterday by Dr. Victor D. Lespinasse, who operated on Mr. McCormick, it read:

"Mr. Harold McCormick is in excellent spirits. His condition from a surgical standpoint is excellent. Pulse 88, temperature 98."

Mr. McCormick remained in seclusion in the walled-off wing of the Wesley Memorial hospital, where the operation was performed. He was being attended by a special corps of nurses and internes, none of whom was allowed to leave the wing.

Members of the family visited the patient during the day, but refused to discuss his condition or comment on widely published reports that Mr. McCormick had been subject of a gland transplantation operation.

Late in the day servants at the McCormick home told inquirers that Howard Colby, one of Mr. McCormick's closest friends, had left the city. No confirmation or denial could be obtained of published reports that Mr. McCormick contemplated departing sometime this week for Europe.

Earlier in the day Mr. Colby accompanied by Muriel McCormick and Mathilde McCormick, daughters of the Harvester company leader, visited him at the hospital.

by the beautiful costuming of black bonnets and varicolored shepherdess dresses. A gymnasium feature by the seventh grade boys, a drill with wands, was next in order, and the uniformity with which the wands moved in unison with the musical accompaniment was remarkable.

"Flowers Fair," by the seventh and eighth grade girls and boys, was beautifully carried out, and the Sallor's Hornpipe, danced by the sixth grade boys, in white sailor suits, was a marked feature. "Swinging" and "Lightly Swaying" were two numbers rendered excellently, and exemplified by the little girls of the fourth, fifth and sixth grades. The Indian club drill by the girls and boys of the ninth grade, was very entertaining, as was "The Postillion," sung by the fourth, fifth and sixth grade boys.

Other than the graduation itself, the highlight of the evening was a pretty spectacle and musical melange called "Market Day." This was given by the girls and boys of the seventh and eighth grades, with the girls, in particular, prettily dressed and bonneted with baskets of attractive daisies filled with the most colorful fruits. The chorus selections were good, but the solo and duet features were quite wonderful for a performance by young children. Pauline Meloy, all in pink, had the first solo, and was followed by two cute little girls, Margaret Enright and Cynthia Dumas, who added their pretty voices to the song. Eileen Redmond was the orange girl and was costumed in orange and white. Vincent McDermott and Rosella Begla were gypsies and sang a couple of truly gypsy songs. The concluding solo was contributed by Marian Martin, in pink and white. The song was accompanied by a pretty movement on the part of the chorus, with the curtain going down on the ensemble in the same formation as in the beginning. A chorus by the ninth grade closed the program of entertainment.

For the final scene of the evening, the presentation of diplomas, the curtain rose on a striking scene. In the exact center of the stage was the very reverend pastor, Fr. Tighe, O.M.I., and behind him and on either side sat the graduates, the 25 boys in dark suits, with white ties, and the girls in pure white. One of Fr. Tighe's assistants read the names of the graduates and as the names of the graduates were read for the class diplomas, each stepped forward to the accompaniment of pronounced applause from the audience and received the coveted honor from the hands of the pastor.

Following the distribution, Fr. Tighe delivered a brief address to the graduates.

In the event, however. Some are leaving farwell to the school for the first time—never to see it again—no longer to see the good sisters and receive their kindly encouragement as in the past. This sadness is tempered, however, by the knowledge that next September, we will have a fully equipped high school for the girls of the Immaculate Conception parish. It is unnecessary to say that we would open up a school inferior to others in any way, and if it were found inferior or inadequate, we would not hesitate to close its doors and admit failure. But knowing the work of the Nuns, success is a certainty. Even after a year, parents will be delighted to see their girls in the new high school for boys. We never find work done, we never feel content to sit back and rest, and we hope for boys' high school in the near future. It may be unnecessary for the boys to go to the Boston College high school. Tonight, we have reason to rejoice in the hopes for a girls' high school, and to make a similar announcement for the boys next year.

Turning to the graduates, Fr. Tighe of watching their education from children to the present time. His message to them was that they should be faithful to duty and that they must be loyal in every respect at all times. The audience left the theatre, the graduates concluded the evening's exercises with the singing of "Holy God, Father, Almighty."

ST. PATRICK'S SCHOOL
With nearly ninety boys and girls of St. Patrick's boys' school and girls' school occupying seats in the main aisle of St. Patrick's church yesterday at the 11 o'clock high mass, the annual graduation of these two institutes of learning, under the auspices of the Kavanagh Brothers and the Sisters of Notre Dame, respectively, was carried out in a solemn and fitting manner.

Rev. Joseph A. Curtin was the celebrant of the mass, immediately after the first gospel was read, the graduates, boys in dark suits and white ties, girls in immaculate white, marched to the altar and there received the diplomas which marked the successful termination of their secondary courses of study and their preparation for higher training.

Rev. Monsignor William O'Brien, R. P., presented the diplomas. The sermon was delivered by Rev. James A. Supple, D.D., who spoke principally on the need of Catholic education. In explaining that children should know about God before anything else, he pointed out that all the young people before him had received what they had from God, and, therefore, should honor God and try to make appropriate return.

The great interest which the church takes in education is mainly for this reason, said the reverend doctor. The past history of the school shows that the endeavor has been successful, with so many of its graduates devoting their lives to the worship and service of God and to other good ends as a result of their early training and the continuation of and constant devotion to its precepts.

Throughout the mass the church and sanctuary choirs carried out a splendid program of music specially arranged for the occasion, with Michael J. Johnson at the organ. At the end of the mass the two choirs united in singing the Hallelujah chorus. Incidentally, the graduation marked the close of the commercial department in the boys' school. In the future, all students who complete the eight grammar grades will proceed along the Junior high school course of study or receive grammar grade diplomas. Although numbers of students have graduated well equipped for business after two years of commercial training, too little practical use of that training has been observed to warrant its continuance.

Those who received diplomas were: Grammar school—Dorothy Elizabeth Ayer, Marie Agnes Brooks, Helen Mary Broska, Margaret Mary Bowers, Dorothy Marie Calnan, Margaret Mary Coaler, Mary Catherine Cryan, Anna Josephine Cunningham, Rosetta Curran, Margaret Teresa Daley, Catherine Margaret Donnelly, Mabel Elizabeth Giffin, Gertrude Helen Glancy, Mary Elizabeth Hart, Lillian Teresa Kane, Rosalie Kane, Catherine Theresa Lannan, Florence Mary Linscott, Mary Mullen, Ella Manning, Anna Loretta McDonough, Mary Ann McGagh, Alice Mary McNabb, Anna Mitchell, Catherine Mollay, Alice Irene Mullen, Mary Margaret Mullen, Margaret Geraldine Murphy, Della Teresa O'Connor, Josephine O'Connor, Mary O'Connor, Margaret Mary O'Connor, Ellen O'Hara, Christina O'Hare, Katherine O'Sullivan, Mary Josephine Riley, Mary Ella Rourke, Catherine Helen Sheridan, Josephine Wren, Angela Mueha.

ST. MICHAEL'S SCHOOL
Yesterday afternoon, in the presence of a large gathering of parents, relatives and friends, the 32nd annual graduation exercises of St. Michael's school were held in the church auditorium.

Previous to the presentation of diplomas, a commencement address was given by Rev. Thomas J. Heagney, who dwelt at length on the significance of the occasion, saying in part: "On the journey of life, the traveler must often come to a turn in the lane, where he must pause for a moment and reflect. As we have today pause to reflect, our thoughts are those of congratulation and well deserved joy. It is a day of happiness first of all for the graduates, those who in these holy surroundings have received the sanction of holy church and the blessing of Almighty God as they go forth to join the ranks of former pupils of St. Michael's.

"It is a day of happiness for the parents, who have sacrificed to make this day possible.

"It is a day of happiness finally for the devoted sisters who through lives of unparalleled devotion and sacrifice have led you on to this happy consummation, and whose only joy and consolation is to see the successful growth of development in the lives of their pupils.

"Unlike the graduating exercises of other schools, our all-wise church leads the successful graduates to the sanctuary of the omnipotent God. Such is the setting of the graduation exercises of those who are to go forth as the representatives and the exponents of the Catholic church.

"In the words of the great theologian, St. Thomas, 'To know a thing is not a matter of intellect, but of the soul through the intellect.' All of the faculties of the soul must be developed in their fullest sense. The Catholic church through her schools is doing this today.

"In the parish schools of St. Michael's you have been strengthened by Christian Doctrine; your characters have been molded; you have been taught the meaning between right and wrong. Your religion has not been neglected, neither has your secular education been neglected. You have been taught, those same studies that are being taught in the secular schools in this city. You have been taught to follow closely in the footsteps of the Master.

"The school of St. Michael's for the last 32 years has been sending forth graduates who have done honor to God and His church. Many have entered the religious life; many have entered the professional world and the business world and all have done the greatest credit to their school. You are now going forth to join the ranks of those illustrious men and women in a world that will look more to your character than to your intellectuality.

"May God's blessing attend you and follow you in whatever work you pursue in the future."

The presentation of diplomas was then made by the pastor, Rev. John J. Shaw.

The list of graduates follows:

Radiographs

Lowell Man's Radio-Violin is Complete Broadcasting Orchestra

The most unique broadcasting station in the country is that of Joseph J. McCann of this city. McCann has devised a one-string instrument from which he sends out music by radio-telephone. A microphone is attached to an ordinary phonograph diaphragm to reproduce the tones of the device. This leads directly to the "broadcasting station" for transmission by radio.

Bulletin on Premier Lenine's Condition

MOSCOW, June 19.—Premier Lenine's condition is given in a bulletin signed by the German doctor, Felix Klempner, and other physicians, under date of June 16, as follows: "The symptoms affecting the stomach and bowel tract which continued for 10 days have for the present moment disappeared. All the inner organs are in complete order. Temperature and pulse are normal. The symptoms of disorder in the blood circulation have smoothed down. The patient has left his bed and feels well, but is impatient over the orders of the doctors, who have prescribed inactivity."

What Makes Crystal Detector "Detect" Radio? Godley Tells

BY PAUL F. GODLEY
America's Foremost Radio Authority
"Unilateral conductivity." What is it?

It is the secret of the crystal set. It is the property that makes of any substance a "detector" of radio signals.

Certain minerals, and a few other materials, possess the characteristics which make them good conductors for current passed through them in one direction only. For example, a piece of carbonadium may show a resistance of only two or three ohms to a certain current. When the current is reversed, the resistance to its flow is several hundred, and in some instances, several thousand ohms.

When substances possessing these

LOOK-UP OF CRYSTAL SET

characteristics are placed in a circuit where an alternating current is flowing, pulses of one polarity pass with ease, while those of the other are wasted and lost. The substance thus becomes known as a "rectifier," since it "rectifies" the alternating current, leaving in its stead, a pulsating, unidirectional current.

Need of Rectifiers

The telephone receivers used in radio work are essentially direct current machines, thus the necessity for a rectifier—or as they are always called—detector, in the radio receiver.

Some minerals used as detectors are so sensitive that the currents fed to

CURRENT TRAVEL ON SURFACE OF WIRE

By PAUL F. GODLEY
America's Foremost Radio Authority
Currents produced in the antenna by radio waves travel only on the surface of the wire.

This is a rather interesting phenomenon, but is easily explained when one takes into consideration the inductive rate at which these currents change their direction.

On the broadcasting wave of 360 meters, the polarity of the currents alternates from the positive to the negative approximately 533,000 times each second.

This rate of change is so rapid that the current has no time to penetrate the copper conductor—the result is this "skin effect."

This presents a considerable problem to radio engineers handling great energies, such as those employed in the high power trans-Atlantic stations. In order to handle this current, large conductors must be used. Since radio currents travel on, or very near, the surface, the conductors must be very large in area.

The wires are usually compounded of a great number of fine wires, each insulated from the other. The whole is then woven into a cable which usually has a hemp rope core. These cables, which may be the size of one's wrist, are then spiraled around a much larger wooden core. In this form they serve as concentrated tuning inductances.

Research work carried on by British engineers recently seems to indicate that the coating of oxide, which any conductor acquires after being subjected to the weather, greatly increases the resistance of an antenna. Because of the small penetration of the current, a goodly portion is actually carried by the oxide coating which is a comparatively poor conductor.

Increased Resistance
Actual results obtained during these experiments showed an increase of resistance in these antenna conductors as great as 50 per cent in a period of a few weeks. In an antenna consisting of an enameled copper wire the resistance remained constant during the same period.

Many of the more advanced amateurs have adopted enameled wire for their antenna. Choosing a No. 22 or 24 wire, they stretch several lengths of it across a vacant lot, fasten it all in the chuck of a hand-drill, and then twist until a cable is formed. Resort to this expedient is usually desirable only where the antenna is to be used for transmitting purposes.

SUMMER WRAP

One summer wrap gets its opalescent appearance from several thick-hesses in different shades of chiffon, the material from which it is made. A collar of fluffy gray fox harmonizes charmingly with the many-toned effect.

RADIO PRIMER

Choke coils in toll wound so as to produce a choking effect on the incoming alternating current. Its self-induction causes impedance in the circuit, which is called choking.

The Majority of Men

Who graduate from high school and college follow a business career, but many of them go about it wrongly. They start without proper equipment and are out-distanced by those who have fitted themselves to do some one thing particularly well. This is the age of the specialist. The apprenticeship system is too slow for the modern pace in business.

The most important thing to consider is not the particular line of business you desire to enter, but whether or not you are qualified for anything more than the duties of an office boy. Academic knowledge alone will not suffice. It must be supplemented with specialized training.

The most notable successes in business have been made by men who specialized in some one branch of business administration, and the best positions in business are filled by department heads who are specialists in their line. Business is so highly organized and complex that it is folly for one to attempt to become proficient in all branches of business administration.

Decide whether you prefer the merchandising end of business (buying, advertising and selling), or the financial end (credits, financial and accounting). The latter offers excellent opportunities for men properly trained for the duties of office manager, cost accountant, auditor, credit manager, assistant treasurer, or treasurer.

The Bentley School of Accounting and Finance is the largest professional school of college grade in the United States that is devoted exclusively to training men for such positions as those just mentioned, and for public accounting practice. The enrollment of over 2100 students attests its popularity.

To Be Bentley-Trained Carries Prestige in Business.

Day courses require two years for completion of prescribed courses in accounting, business law, business English, economics, corporation finance, commercial and bank credits, and business mathematics. Yearly tuition $190, or $200 if paid in monthly installments of $20 each.

Evening courses require four years. Yearly tuition $51, payable in monthly installments of $5 each.

Students range in age from 18 to 45.

MRS. LULA VANN
FULTON, ARK.

Suggests to Suffering Women
the Road to Health

Fulton, Arkansas.—"I used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for a soreness in my side. I would suffer so badly every month from my waist down that I could not be on my feet half the time. I was not able to do my work without help. I saw your Vegetable Compound advertised in a newspaper and gave it a fair trial. Now I am able to do my work and don't even have a backache every month. I cannot praise your Vegetable Compound enough and highly recommend it to those who have troubles like mine. I am willing for these facts to be used as a testimonial to lead all who suffer with female troubles, as I did, to the right road to health."—Mrs. LULA VANN, Box 43, Fulton, Arkansas.

It is this sort of praise of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, given by word of mouth and by letter, one woman to another, that should cause you to consider taking this well-known medicine, if you are troubled with such symptoms as painful periods, weak, nervous feelings, miserable pains in your back, and cannot work at certain times.

Here is a woman who is so grateful and glad to be relieved from a painful and nerve-racking physical condition that she wishes to tell all sick women.

K. OF P. HOLD ANNUAL MEMORIAL SERVICE

The Knights of Pythias held their annual memorial service yesterday morning, at the Centralville M. E. church. Four lodges were represented as well as Dorcas and Chevalier temples, Pythian Sisters. The memorial sermon, or address, was delivered by Rev. Karl P. Meister, pastor of the church.

After the roll call of the lodges had been finished, the chancellor commanders read the list of those who have died during the year. As each name was called, the emblematic myrtle of the society was placed on the floral tributes.

Following are the members who have died during the past 12 months: Chevalier Middlesex lodge: Matthew A. Ross, George B. Gurew, James R. Smith, William A. Archibald, Edward D. Clark, Christopher R. Cummings, William H. Olney, George Clark, Lowell lodge 21: M. G. Dockel, George W. Townsend, William A. Newhall.

Wamsit lodge 25: Arthur F. Mason, Samuel H. Hines 55: Henry E. King, Edward J. Garner.

Those in charge of the services were C. C. Albert H. Bowen, C. C. Charles H. Kimball, C. C. John Palsone, C. C. Samuel Northam, Mrs. Gladys Whitling and Mrs. Mary L. Renner.

Charles S. Pettigrew was in general charge of the committee on arrangements.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

By the Theatres' Press Agents

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

In keeping with all the accounts and traditions of splendor and magnificence attending the arrival of the Queen of Sheba at the court of King Solomon, more than three thousand years ago, is the spectacular photoplay, "Queen of Sheba," which opened a run at the Merrimack Square theatre last night. The sensational success of this remarkable William Fox super-special in its opening on Broadway, New York, is easily understood by all who see the picture.

Scene after scene of extraordinary power and splendor kept the audience gasping with surprise and admiration, and more than once cheering was heard—a thing to which motion picture audiences are not prone except when profoundly stirred.

Betty Blythe was a regally beautiful Sheba, Fritz Lieber, an effective and convincing King Solomon. Nell Craig, a dashing and fascinating Princess Yashti, and other members of the notable cast gave excellent portrayals.

THE STRAND

Bert Lytell in his latest ring romance, "The Right That Failed," brings to the surface a new phase of this clever actor's personality and versatility as a screen star. You will thoroughly enjoy him as the high-brow prize fighter, and you will be amused at how he won fame and a girl by his physical prowess. Frank Mayo in "Tracked to Earth" is the other feature on the bill for the first three days of the week. It's one of Mayo's he-man stories of the west.

FAREWELL RECEPTION TO FR. HEANEY

Members of Court Westford, 170, M. C. O. F. of Grantville tendered a farewell reception to the pastor of St. Catherine's church, Rev. Charles F. Heaney, who has been transferred to Boston. The event took place last evening and those who took part in the entertainment were Miss Rebecca Leduc, William Drolet, Miss Regina McLenna, Miss Rachel Wall, R. J. McCarthy. The accompanists were Miss Florence Guenter, Mrs. Agnes Charlton and Miss Winifred Thompson. In behalf of the members of the society, the president, Mrs. Elizabeth Harrington, presented Fr. Heaney a silk umbrella and a bouquet of roses. Rev. Fr. Heaney spoke feelingly, thanking the members of the organization for their mark of esteem and he assured them that although in another city he will never forget his flock at Grantville. The affair was in charge of Mrs. Harrington and Mrs. Lena Monahan.

STILL ALARM

A still alarm was sent in at 5:30 o'clock, yesterday morning, for a slight blaze in a partition at 5 Bay Street court.

SECURE RELIEF PLEASANTLY

Constipation results from the inability of the intestines to eliminate waste matter. Harsh cathartics are drugs of noxious origin force action but they do not correct the cause of constipation.

Early settlers treated constipation with natural laxatives. An extract was made from herbs, roots, bark and leaves with laxative qualities. Dr. True's Elixir, the True Family Laxative, is a compound of extracts from natural plants—pure, mild, pleasant and effective—old-fashioned home-made laxative that for 71 years has been a favorite. OUTING AT MARTIN

LUTHER GROUNDS

The first outing of the season for the employees of the repair and motor departments of the Merrimack Mfg. Co. took place Saturday afternoon at the Martin Luther grounds in Tyngsboro. The trip to the grounds was made in automobile trucks graciously furnished by the agent of the company, and in the afternoon a varied list of sporting events was carried out. Dinner was served at 3 o'clock and later more outdoor events were conducted. The committee in charge of arrangements consisted of Fred W. Ireland, chairman; Joseph Whalen, William Wyman, G. Fortier and J. Duffy.

How to Play Baseball

Shortstop Must Move Fast, Says Evans

BY BILLY EVANS

Editor of N. E. A. Service

While second base is a most important position, yet it has always seemed to me that shortstop is the most difficult position of all.

The duties of the shortstop are many and varied. He must be able to go to his right or left on hard hit balls. He must go into the outfield on all short fly balls to dead left or right center which he believes cannot be handled by the outfielder.

On certain plays he must be prepared to cover second or third base. Other plays he must back up either second baseman or third baseman. He must come to the assistance of the pitcher on slow hit balls just out of the pitcher's reach.

No Limit on Field

On safe hits to left or center field he must go out to handle the relay when it is possible that plays may come in the third or fourth base is no limitation to the territory a shortstop must cover.

When balls are merely knocked down by the third baseman it is up to the shortstop to recover them.

If the baseman is a right fielder, the shortstop invariably covers on a throw to second to catch a base runner. It is the duty of the pitcher at such times to go into the batter's box to hit to right field.

When the infield gets set for a certain batter, the delivery of the proper ball by the pitcher has nearly as much to do with the direction the ball will take as the tendency of the batter.

Who Covers

If the batter is known as a left field hitter, and the pitcher works on him properly, the second baseman should always cover on a throw from the catcher. The wisdom of such a shift is apparent. If second baseman covered on a ball known as a right fielder, he would leave all the territory between first and second open for him to hit through. Similarly, if the pitcher covered on a batter known as a left field hitter, it would leave all the territory between second and third vacant.

ST. LOUIS BROWNS INCREASE LEAD

Now Game and a Half Ahead of Yankees—Home Runs by Williams and Sisler

Yankees Drop Seventh Straight—St. Louis' Cardinals Halt Giants

NEW YORK, June 19.—Led by their slugger, George Sisler and Ken Williams, the St. Louis Browns have for the moment at least, shaken themselves free of the field in the American league. They beat Ed Ruppel, catching star of the Athletics and the Yankees dropped their seventh straight in losing to Cleveland, now led by a game and a half. Williams, who hit his 17th homer, besides a triple, and Sisler registered a double and a homer.

Walter Hoyt lasted less than an inning against the slugging Indians and as the bats of Babe Ruth and his mates were silenced by Coveleskie, Speaker's men took the first game of the New York series, 9 to 2. The veteran, Tris, led the onslaught with a brace of doubles and a single.

Hain cut short the only two games scheduled in the National league, but five innings were enough for St. Louis to halt the winning streak of the Pittsburgh Pirates, 5 to 2. The Pirates, blanked Brooklyn, 2 to 0, in six innings. The result cut the lead of the Giants to five and, one-half games out of the Cardinals. The Cardinals, who had been leading the league, were defeated by the Philadelphia Athletics, 4 to 1.

The Cardinals' hitting, including our bingles in as many trips to the plate, featured Detroit's easy victory over Boston, 3 to 1. The Sox, who had the better of Urban Faber in a duel of veterans and Washington defeated Chicago, 1 to 0.

LETTY RELEASED

BOSTON, June 19.—George "Lefty" Flaherty, who was a member of the famous "big three" of the Boston Braves in 1914, and who has been with the team all season in an endeavor to get a "come back" was given his conditional release Saturday.

MORVICH TO APPEAR IN $50,000 RACE

NEW YORK, June 19.—Morvich, no longer, "the unbeaten," was expected to leave in his special car today for Lexington, Ky. There, in a special $50,000 race next Saturday against the cream of the three-year-old thoroughbreds, he will seek to regain the prestige he lost when he was beaten by Harry Payne Whitney's Whiskaway in the Carlton stakes, at Aqueduct Saturday.

Whiskaway, with an advantage of 15 pounds over Morvich in the weights, never was threatened after taking the lead at the start and won pulled up with a margin of eight lengths in the remarkably fast time of 1:38 3-5 for the mile.

Snob II, J. S. Costlen's French bred colt, a poor third, pulled up lame and was found to have a split front foot, which will prevent him from competing at Lexington. He will not run for some time, it is said. The handicap in weights undoubtedly had its effect on the showing of the Black colt, but it would have taken more than a superhorse to match the pace Whiskaway set from the barrier to finish. Clocked in 1:38 3-5, second at the half mile, the Whiskaway was more than a second faster than the American record for this distance, 45.1 seconds, and finished the mile just a second slower than the American record of 1:35 3-5, set by Audacious.

BILLY DISCH IS CHAMPION COACHER

William J. "Billy" Disch, has just piloted the University of Texas Longhorns to their eleventh consecutive southern championship under his coaching.

Disch is an old Texas league baseball player, and has turned out many successful youngsters to the leagues. Bob Falk of the Chicago White Sox is one of his products. Bill Kilmer of the Chicago Cubs was one of his pupils.

The eleventh consecutive championship claim to being the classiest baseball team of colleges and universities south of the Mason and Dixon line.

In 1914 Disch achieved a world record when his team won 22 straight games, a single loss while on a tour through the midwest being the only break in the string.

BRITISH GOLF TOURNEY

SANDWICH, England, June 19.—(By the Associated Press) Qualifying play in the British open golf championship tournament was started under ideal weather conditions.

More than 200 competitors started out with the hope of qualifying in this, the greatest golfing event of the year. The 80 turning in the lowest score for today's and tomorrow's medal play, will be eligible for the match play on Thursday and Friday.

Jack Huchingson, the American who held his title last year, is defending his title and the United States is represented by two other strong players, Jim Barnes and Walter Hagen.

The Lisbon Juniors claim the 15-

16 year old championship of the city and again defeated the Yankees, Americans and Nationals to a game any where and any time.

Thursday marked the opening of the Volstead (twilight) league. On this day

the members of the league, the shiners by the score of 10 to 2. On Friday the Bootleggers had enough on the hip to beat the Homebrewers. The league standing shows the Bootleggers to be on top with 100 p. c. proof

while the Moonshiners occupy the cellar.

U. OF VERMONT COMMENCEMENT

BURLINGTON, Vt., June 19.—The University of Vermont at its 118th commencement today conferred the honorary degrees of Doctor of Divinity

upon the Rt. Rev. George Williams

Davenport, Episcopal bishop of the Western diocese of Maryland, and

Doctor of Letters, Dorothy Can-field Fisher, author, Arlington, Vt., and

Lawrence Fraser Abbott, editor, New York.

Gwathney's "Common Horse Sense"

(LEFT) BELLE OF BRYN MAWR—HER JOCKEY, SIMS, AND "FOX," HER GUARD.

BY BOB DORMAN

NEW YORK, June 19.—Twice a mother, the Belle of Bryn Mawr, several times past, has returned to the track and in the International Steeplechase handicap equalled the track record for the event.

Twice, before she became a dam,

she had won the feature, but had never approached the record.

Her owner, J. Temple Gwathney,

Virginia sportsman and breeder, contends that a mare should be taught to race as a yearling, taught to jump

while still young, retired to the stud, rear offspring, and then return to the game.

Gwathney's theory

His theory is that sending the mare to the stud steadies her and makes her better fitted for game and exciting racers.

The Belle of Bryn Mawr was the mare selected to prove his theory.

As a youngster she won race after race, establishing herself in the front rank of the steeplechasers.

But she was always known as a bad actor. She was wild, and early morning workouts on the track were an impossibility on account of her runaway tactics.

At the height of her glory she dropped from sight.

Settled Down

Gwathney was working out his theory.

He sent her to his Canterbury farm in Virginia, where she bore two good colts and was mated this spring.

Then she was put in training for a summer campaign on the tracks.

She was found to have completely settled down. Her wildness had left her, but her speed and jumping ability seemed improved.

The proof came with the winning of the International Steeplechase handicap.

Gwathney thinks he at least has demonstrated that his theory is worth the attention of the breeders.

Adventures of the Twins

HAI COMET-LEGS AND CHRIS CROW HATCH A PLOT

"BIG" CALLED DOWN A CROSS VOICE OUT OF THE OLD HICKORY TREE.

Nancy and Nick were doing an errand for Mr. Peabody, the Man-in-the-Moon.
 Mr. Peabody said something was wrong because on some nights when he had a fine, clear, bright moon for folks, the very next day he'd get complaints about it being pale, 'n' misty 'n' cloudy 'n' things like that.
 So the Twins were watching.
 The sun went to bed and all at once there was the old moon over the trees. It had been there all along, only it seemed to get bright just in a minute.
 "The moon looks all right now," said Nick. "Mr. Peabody said he would make it look like a dollar to-night. Only it looks more like a hundred dollars. It's so big."
 "Big" called down a cross voice out of the old hickory tree. "Big! I should say it is. But just you wait, I'll get fixed or my name isn't Chris Crow."
 "What'll fix it?" asked Nick. "And how?"
 "Oh, I gotta friend," boasted Chris. "You see I got tired of that old moon nagging about."
 "Hold on, Mr. Peabody's got the idea that folks want a moon all the time, and he's everlastingly bringing the old thing around when it's not wanted."
 "Here it is—a week past overplanting and the grains are just sprouted enough to be delicious. But I can't even look at the corn. Old Scar-Crow would see me."
 "But I gotta friend," he went on. "It's Comet-Legs! He doesn't like Peabody. He'll blow the moon out for me."

What to Wear at the Beach This Summer—Marian Hale Tells

EXAMPLES FROM THE LATEST STYLES OF THE SEASON OF BOTH AMERICAN TYPES OF BATHING SUITS—(LEFT) THE ORNATE; (RIGHT) THE SIMPLE.

BY MARIAN HALE
 Mack Bennett and Annette Kellerman are the two great influences that have made the bathing suit what it is today.
 Bennett found it ugly, undeveloped and unimaginative. By cross-breeding it with the costume of chorus girls and debutantes, he achieved luxury and picturesque.
 And this season's suits of silks, satins, velvet, batik and lace, with corages, jewels, feathers and fur, are all the direct descendants of his line of propagation.
 Annette, on the other hand, made elimination her motto. She pared down the bathing suit, reduced it to its simplest form.
 And her contribution is the sensible wool jersey suit, built on the premise that a woman occasionally likes to get into the water as well as loiter on the beach.
 The model she originated this season has been developed in the most gorgeous colors and frequently is adorned with wide embroidery, applique or cross-stitch. It has become a three-piece costume with a long wool cape.
 One of the innovations of this season is the suit with the high collar. It buttons snugly about the throat,

Just as grandmother's basque did, and absolutely defies the sun to redecorate the neck and shoulders of the wearer. It also has a way of concealing shoulder blades that jut far out and spoil the outline.

The slung bathing suit, too, is a novelty, and comes decorated and befrilled much like the silk one.
 Every beach siren has a long cape, which she uses advantageously. These are cut much on the line of the popular street cape of the moment. They are of satin, rubber lined, or pongee or terry cloth.
 Very smart ones of a fine grade of rubber are on the general plan of the Spanish scarf, with long, deep out fringe.

HOME HOOVER

Driving through Florida, F. M. Hoffman nailed up signs like this advertising Port Huron, Mich. A good bunch for some of this city's travelers.

SWIMMING CHAMP
 Miss Ethel McGary of the Women's Swimming Association, New York, became national 500-yard junior swimming champion at the races at Brighton Beach, N. Y.

GRAY SUEDE

Gray suede is extremely popular, both for pumps, and for trimmings on black patent leather pumps. The suede pump has reached its height, and the newest models are trimmed with stitching and strapings, rather than silks.

LOWELL DISTRICT COURT DEGREES CONFERRED ON

Five Alleged Violators of Volstead Act Arraigned Today—Other Cases

Evidence of a resumption of activities on a large scale by the liquor squad was given this morning, when five alleged offenders appeared in district court. One other, a partner of one of the defendants, failed to answer when his name was called by the clerk, and was defaulted.

Continuances were granted in all cases, mostly for the convenience of the lawyers. Aleck Sadick, for illegal keeping, and Kagoh Kraplan, for the same offense, were continued until June 28. Louis Joseph, for illegal sale, and George Metracos, for illegal sale, were put over to June 30. Thomas Makris, for illegal keeping, was granted a continuance until July 3, and his partner, Leo Chretien, was defaulted.

In the latter case, according to the liquor officers, a squad consisting of Sergeant Winn and Officers Conroy, Conner and Moore, accompanied by Federal Agent Bowers, paid a visit to a home-brew resort conducted by Makris and Chretien in Austin street. They were treated as customers and allowed to wander through the place. They allege that in one room they found four men drunk with ginger ale, cracked ice, a lemon, a knife and, in fact, everything necessary for the preparation of fancy drinks, on a table. In another room, evidently used for beer, exclusively, they claim they found two pints of "shine" under a pillow. They found two more men in another place. In the beer room they say they found a man in a drunken condition with a pint of liquor in his possession, which he admitted having purchased on the premises. The officers stated, it is alleged, that they had been in this place for several weeks, and in court this morning Makris pleaded guilty to the charge of illegal keeping.

Saturday's Evening's Raids
In the course of the evening, last Saturday, many other places were visited, resulting in the appearance of the other defendants.

That the experience of Frank Matthews, 26, should be a warning to other young men to keep off the streets and out of mischief late at night, since the young man came very near death at the hands of a police officer while trying to escape from a drunken condition, to break into a house on Pine street, was the dictum of Judge Knight in disposing of the case in court this morning. Matthews, a native of North Billerica, was arrested Saturday night about midnight on a charge of drunkenness and attempted breaking and entering. He was charged with breaking into the residence of Mrs. C. N. Childs at 42 Pine street.

Edmund J. Cheney, a state police officer, was awakened by a "phone call" from a woman living next door to the scene, armed with a revolver. In the meantime Mrs. Childs had notified the police, as well as Officer Conroy and Andrew Hunter. Hunter started for the scene in the latter's motorcycle and Lieut. Ryan, Sergt. Winn, and Officers Moore and Conner followed. When they arrived in the neighborhood they found that Officer Cheney had fired three shots at the man who had run away at the sight of the police. Cheney was taken up by the officers on the motorcycle, and Hunter, overtook the quarry about a quarter of eight. Cheney, who denied all recollection of the offense, although he admitted he had heard the shots and was running away from them, was taken up by the officers. Officer Conroy picked up a button beneath one of the windows at which the man was working and it matched one of the buttons of a suit. Cheney, who was wearing a suit, was taken up by the officers. Cheney, who was wearing a suit, was taken up by the officers. Cheney, who was wearing a suit, was taken up by the officers.

Charge of Larceny
John F. Lalley, a 19-year-old Dorchester youth, appeared on a charge of larceny of $9 from the cash drawer of the Griffin Co., on Appleton street, near South. The alleged larceny took place some time ago, when the owner was absent from the premises temporarily. Mrs. Lalley, the defendant's mother, appeared in his behalf. She told the court that the boy had never been arrested before; that another man had been in his company and had told her that the other man for about three weeks. She was found guilty and was given a year's suspension on a sentence of six months in the house of correction. He was told to go home and keep in touch with the probation officer by letter.

Other Offenders
Joseph Fine was in the dock for non-support of his wife and minor child. His wife said she had received no contribution from him for an extended period. The court ordered him to support his family or be committed to the house of correction. He was found guilty and was given a year's suspension on a sentence of six months in the house of correction. He was told to go home and keep in touch with the probation officer by letter.

OUTING POSTPONED
The annual outing of the boys of St. Patrick's parish, scheduled for this morning, was postponed indefinitely on account of the inclement weather.

LOWELL STUDENTS

(Special to The Sun)

BOSTON, June 19.—Thirteen students from Lowell and vicinity were honored by degrees at the annual commencement of Boston University held in Symphony hall this morning. Three Lowell students, Florence E. Durgin, Carrie E. Hall, and Elaine G. Rich, received degrees of Bachelor of Science in Education. The degree of Bachelor of Laws was conferred upon five Lowell students, Paul J. Angelo, Joseph H. Coupe, John A. McGuire, Jr., Peter H. Ready, and James H. Riley, and upon John H. Valentine of North Chelmsford. The following students from Methuen and Chelmsford were awarded degrees: Desha A. Hollows of Methuen, Bachelor of Religious Education; William M. Johnson of Methuen, Bachelor of Business Administration; Helen M. Quigley of North Chelmsford, Bachelor of Arts; and Miriam E. Warren of Chelmsford, Bachelor of Science. Morris M. Klinger of Methuen has completed the course of study, and will receive the degree of Bachelor of Laws upon reaching the age of 21.

Over 650 degrees were conferred by President L. H. Murlin upon the largest graduating class in the history of the university. This is an increase of 200 over the 450 degrees granted last June. This large number is due to the fact that Boston University now has over 3800 students enrolled, exclusive of extra-mural courses.

Dr. John F. McConnell of Pittsborough, bishop of the Methodist Episcopal church, delivered the commencement address on the subject, "Education, Imagination," before the faculties, graduates, and 2000 guests. Business, the law and medical professions, will claim the majority of the class. Among the graduates of the College of Business Administration is Ting K. Wang, the son of the distinguished ex-premier of China. The teaching profession is still popular with Boston University students. More than 50 per cent. of the senior class at the College of Liberal Arts will become teachers, mostly in the public high schools. In addition to these, 80 students who have taken specialized training in the School of Education at the Graduate School will enter educational work.

A number of this June's graduates are planning to continue their work in the summer session of the university, beginning on July 10th, which is now an integral part of the university program. Owing to the large number of teachers from the admission, this year's summer session program will be greatly enlarged. 141 courses will be offered by 60 members of the faculty.

BIG DROP IN MILK

Fifteen Cases of Milk Destroyed in Collision
Two men were thrown from a wagon and 15 cases of milk were destroyed in a collision between a milk wagon and an automobile in East Merrimack street early yesterday morning. The men escaped injury and the wagon was not damaged. The automobile had one of its head lights smashed. It is claimed by the police that the driver of the machine did not stop to make himself known and ascertain the damage after the accident but after a lively chase, the auto was overtaken in Nesmith street, and according to the police the driver, Willis E. Hawkes of 228 Wentworth avenue, admitted having figured in the collision.

The milk wagon is owned by Edward Obuz of 132 Whipple road, Tewksbury, and in the wagon with him was his father. The wagon was being driven into East Merrimack street when the collision occurred. The automobile came along from Merrimack square. When the collision occurred, the two men in the wagon were thrown to the pavement, but the driver managed to hold the horse, which was endeavoring to run away.

After the collision, it is said, the automobile increased its speed up the East Merrimack street hill, but an automobile containing John Gleason of 173 Crosby street, Frank McLaughlin, 16 Keane street and William Donovan, 25 Madison street, gave chase and when a point was reached in Nesmith street, the registration on the auto was taken, and later reported to the police who, after an investigation, found that the car is owned and was being operated by Willis E. Hawkes of 228 Wentworth avenue.

FOR BOARD OF ASSESSORS

The name of Edwin T. Shaw in all probability will be sent to the city clerk next Thursday evening for filing as a nominee to the board of assessors. While the mayor did not care to say definitely, it is thought that Dr. Hugh Walker's name will accompany it.

The name of Edward Frawley, the club's financial secretary, was nominally submitted. Mr. Frawley was master of ceremonies.

THE ST. COLUMBA'S GUILD

The St. Columba's guild will meet the parish hall tomorrow evening 8 o'clock.

At St. Margaret's church, it was announced that a "whist" party will be held in the basement of the church Friday evening. The proceeds will towards defraying the expenses of refreshment table at the parish la party. On Friday afternoon there will be a cake sale in A. G. Pollard's. It is also in aid of the lawn party.

SOLEMN OBSERVANCE IN CATHOLIC CHURCHES—GRAND PROCESSION AT ST. PETER'S

The feast of Corpus Christi was solemnly observed in all the Catholic churches yesterday. Processions were held within the edifices in some of the churches, but the principal observance and by far the most impressive was the beautiful procession at St. Peter's in the afternoon. Over 800 children of St. Peter's school took part in the beautiful spectacle, which comprised 16 units, each being designated by the various orders of angels. Upwards of 200 people lined the sidewalks to view the ceremony. To the accompaniment of the Italian band of the Saint Antoni society—the children, ranging in years from 4 to 15, marched from the school to the church, where the procession was formally begun. The marchers proceeded from the church to Gornal street, to Mann square and South street to the rear entrance to the church. The multiplicity of colors, violet, yellow, pink, blue, white, red and green formed a harmonious picture. Bringing up the rear of the church were the altar boys, canons and clergy, with Rev. Daniel J. Keleher, Ph.D., carrying the Blessed Sacrament under a canopy of silk.

The procession was brought to close with solemn benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

The parish-school boys of the school acted as marshals during the procession.

A FEATURE OF THE SERVICE IN THE FORUM

was the presence of the St. Antonio Italian society. It was addressed by Rev. Dr. Keleher in English, as he then turned to Italian. Fr. Mion addressed them in Italian. Fr. Mion upon the significance of the feast.

At St. Patrick's, the observance generally recognized as one of the most impressive of the year, was confined yesterday, on account of the rain, to the service in the church at 7:30 p. m. In the past a most elaborate procession has been a feature, and a similar observance had been planned for the year also. Next Friday will be the feast of the Sacred Heart and mass will be celebrated at 5:30 a. m. On Friday evening at 8 o'clock a devotion will be opened at the Sacred Heart church. On Wednesday evening a triduum will open at St. Columba's church.

At the Immaculate Conception church yesterday a procession of girls, altar boys and children of the parish were held in conjunction with the solemn high mass.

Among the announcements made by the pastor, Rev. Lawrence P. Tigh was the examination for scholarships Boston college and Boston College school. The school will take place 8:20, June 24, and the former at 8 o'clock on June 22.

At the conclusion of the high mass in St. Michael's, a Corpus Christi procession was held, ending with benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

At this church devotion in honor of the Sacred Heart will be held in the event at 7:30.

On Wednesday evening, a triduum will open with a sermon, rosary a benediction, and a vigil on Friday evening. The procession will towards defraying the expenses of refreshment table at the parish la party. On Friday afternoon there will be a cake sale in A. G. Pollard's. It is also in aid of the lawn party.

Indictments Result of Seizure of Machine Guns on Ship at Hoboken Last June

Col. Thompson, Auto-Ordnance Co. of N. Y. and Seven Others Are Accused

Thompson is Son-in-Law of Col. Harvey, U. S. Ambassador to Great Britain

NEWARK, N. J., June 18.—Col. Marcellus Thompson, indicted on a charge of conspiracy to ship arms to Ireland in violation of the neutrality laws, today pleaded not guilty before Federal Judge Reistab.

A plea of not guilty to a similar indictment was made on behalf of the Auto-Ordnance Co., as a corporation. George Gordon Horke, a salesman of Washington and Frank R. Ochsen-der of New York and Washington, accused in indictments of having placed the orders for the guns, also pleaded not guilty.

Indictments Returned
TRENTON, N. J., June 18.—Colonel Marcellus H. Thompson, vice president and active head of the Auto-Ordnance Co. of New York, has been indicted by the federal grand jury here on a charge of conspiracy to ship arms to Ireland in violation of the neutrality laws. The announcement was made today by Assistant United States Dis-

TO DISPOSE OF TARIFF AND BONUS BILLS

WASHINGTON, June 18.—Senate republicans in conference today voted 30 to 9 against laying aside the tariff bill to consider the soldiers' bonus. A resolution favoring final disposition of both the tariff bill and the bonus measure at this session and before any recess then was adopted. The bonus measure would be made the unfinished business after a final vote on the tariff. Senator Walsh, democrat, Massachusetts, after learning of the action of the republican conference, said a move to bring up the bonus would be made in the senate after the passage of the pending naval appropriation bill.

Death Threat Contained in Unsigned Letter Received By Mayor Brown

Mayor George H. Brown today received an anonymous black hand communication through the mail, threatening death and bearing the admonition: "Remember that you are partly to blame for Tsaffaras." With a black dagger drawn at the top of a sheet of plain white paper and an ominous appearing black hand, with clutching fingers mutely testifying to the state of mind of the sender, the communication, without salutation or signature, was scrawled in ink, poorly written and spelled.

While the mayor took it more in the form of a joke, or harmless threat, it nevertheless caused him a little speculation, although he has not turned it over to the police department. In full, the communication read as follows:

Beware Brown
You Are Going Too Far, You Gaffer Atkinson Will Receive Warning Too If You and Your Police Chief Don't Look Out, It Is DEATH Remember That You Are Partly To Blame for Tsaffaras
Of course, the mayor has no idea concerning the origin of the threat, or why it should have been thought of and sent to him. Whether the Tsaffaras referred to is the patrolman who resigned from the local force, is not known. The mayor carefully looked over the communication and commented upon its unusualness, but was inclined to laugh it off as he returned it to a drawer in his desk.

LARGE CLASSES GRADUATED BY THE PAROCHIAL SCHOOLS

Immaculate Conception School Holds Commencement Exercises in Keith's Theatre—St. Patrick's Boys' and Girls' Schools Graduated at High Mass—Special Musical Program—Other Graduations Included the Sacred Heart and St. Michael's Schools; St. Joseph's Collegè and Notre Dame de Lourdes' School

Keith's theatre was crowded to the doors last evening, despite the disagreeable weather, when a class of 60 girls and boys, evenly divided, were awarded diplomas signifying the completion of their courses of study at the Immaculate Conception parochial school, in care of the Grey Nuns. A splendid program of entertainment by the pupils of the various grades was excellently carried out, and was followed by the presentation of Palmer Penmanship diplomas, Costello medals and class diplomas by the Very Rev. Lawrence P. Flaherty, O.M.I., assisted by William Dooley and Eugene Sweeney. The evening's program began with two selections, "The Fairies' Lullaby" and "The Wonderful World" by the tiny kindergarten girls. All in white and many of them showing unmistakable signs of stage fright on their initial public appearance. Military discipline was next in order and was exemplified by a number of little boys with mimic rifles, each carrying out a command. The kindergarten boys, in white blouses and dark trousers, gave an excellent account of themselves in two vocal selections, "A Ride" and "A Soldier Song." The sixth grade girls followed with a Bo-Peep dance, and its pretty execution was much enhanced.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS HOLD MEETING

At a regular meeting of the county commissioners held at the courthouse in Gorham street this morning, bids for 800 tons of bituminous coal and 50 tons of hard coal for the Middlesex County Training school at North Chelmsford, were opened. The bids submitted by the Horne Coal Co. were the lowest, but the contract will not be awarded for a few days.

The bidders and their bids were as follows: E. A. Wilson Co., bituminous, $9.23 a ton; No. 1 nut, $16.50; egg, $16 and stove, $18.50. Horne Coal Co., bituminous, $8.53; No. 1 nut, $16.50; egg, $18.50.

TRACKS OVERFLOWED IN FIRST STREET

What appeared to be an immense washout on First street, near Lewis, lyn, was found to be the plugging of the catch basin, evidently caused by the heavy rain and mud in that district. Employees of the street railway were busy all morning pumping the water from the car tracks on the Lowell-Lawrence line. There was no interruption in traffic.

MAN GORED AND TRAMPLED UPON

Man Attacked by Bull Saved From Terrible Death by His Neighbor

Latter Grabbed Big Stick as Man Lay Bleeding on Ground and Beat Off Brute

NEW BEDFORD, June 18.—Attacked suddenly late yesterday afternoon by his big Holstein bull, gored several times, and his face trampled on, Antonio Silva, of Westport, was saved from a terrible death by his neighbor, Gilbert Rego. As Silva lay bleeding, Rego grabbed a big stick and beat off the bull.

FELL THROUGH BRIDGE

One Man Drowned and Three Others Barely Escaped in Auto Plunge

NORTH CONWAY, N. H., June 18.—Joseph Whalen, 23, of Lynn, Mass., was drowned, his wife and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Martin, also of Lynn, barely escaped death when the machine driven by Whalen plunged through the rail of a concrete bridge in Crawford Notch, dropped to the street below and turned turtle, throwing the passengers into a deep pool. Whalen turned the car sharply to the right when what appeared to be a sign directing such action, loomed out of the mist late at night. The three passengers, whose lives were saved were rescued by an auto party which reached the bridge a few seconds after the crash.

CLERKS ARE WRITING POLL TAX BILLS

Clerks in the office of the city treasurer today began writing more than 30,000 poll tax bills for 1922. It is hoped that they will be ready to send out by July 1.

Each bill is in the sum of $5, but Spanish-American and World war veterans may obtain an abatement of $3, provided that proper application is made at the office of the assessors within 90 days of receipt of bill. Veterans of the Civil war are exempt from the entire tax. Next year will see the end of the $5 poll tax, imposed for the years 1920, 1921, 1922 and 1923 by Chapter 283, Acts of 1919. The young man ap- pears in the superior court on an information brought by County Solicitor Roy M. Pickard.

MURPHY INDICTED

BOSTON, June 18.—The Suffolk county grand jury today returned an indictment charging James Murphy, a prisoner in a penitentiary at Philadelphia, with the murders of Edward T. Foley and Audrey E. Hall, managers of tea stores here in February, 1917. George Rollins, convicted five years ago of the murder of Hall, has been in jail here during that time awaiting sentence.

HOW STORM DAMAGED ROOF OF RED ARROW GARAGE

Torrential Downpour Blocks Sewers and Turns Streets Into Miniature Rivers—Garage Roof Caves in After Booming Crash of Thunder—Automobiles Damaged—Merrimack River Rising

Not in years has the city been visited by such a torrential downpour as that which began at 8 a. m. on Saturday, continued all day Sunday, assumed cloud burst proportions this morning and showed no signs of abatement until shortly before noon today. For a brief period yesterday afternoon the waters receded, only to flow again with increased intensity when night came on, augmented by thunder showers that played over the city throughout the early morning hours. Sometime between midnight and 5 o'clock this morning, following close on the heels of a booming thunder-clap, the roof of the Red Arrow garage at 550 Moody street, fell in with a crash, damaging one or two cars, imprisoning a score of others and throwing the place into the utmost confusion. The garage is owned by Dr. Rodrigue Migneault and leased by William Wilson. The latter said this noon that he was unable to estimate the loss.

PHONEY LABELS FOR HOME MADE HOOCH

Rumors drifting about the city from time to time about places where "the real old stuff" could be obtained in limited quantity, bottled in bond and with real intact, were partly accounted for Saturday, when the liquor squad paid a visit to the premises of George Metrocou at 115 Cushing street, and came away with a few samples of alleged illicit liquor and still more important to seekers after information regarding the "hooch" business, a number of labels for the marking and transforming of the home made brands of 'shine, when properly colored, to well known brands, popular in pre- Volstead days.

Among the labels brought in but one variety is for American-made goods, Merchants Club Rye Whiskey, with the pure food and drugs act of 1906 guaranteed thereon. Extra One Canadian brandy is represented, also "Seal of France" brandy, with the name of Pierre Larousse of Cie. on

A. F. OF L. TO AID N. E. TEXTILE STRIKERS

CINCINNATI, June 18.—(By the Associated Press)—"Full moral and financial support" was pledged to the New England Textile Workers, now on strike, by a resolution adopted unanimously by the labor convention today without discussion. The resolution also urged all delegates to carry out its terms "to the best of their ability."

For 44 Hour Week
The convention adopted a resolution favoring the 44 hour week throughout the printing industry. The resolution pledges the federation's "moral and all other helpful support" to the International Typographical union in its fight for the 44 hour week, and asked all trades unions and their members "to purchase only such printed matter produced under union conditions and by employers who honor their word and observe agreements that they have entered into for the 44-hour week." Further, the resolution directed the legislative council of the federation on request of the printers' union to aid in every possible and practical manner in bringing establishment of the 44-hour week.

France to Take Part in Hague Conference

PARIS, June 19.—(By the Associated Press)—France will take part in the conference at The Hague with the Russian delegates, beginning June 20, it was officially announced at the foreign office today. If political questions are introduced, however, the French delegates will promptly withdraw. The French delegates have received strict instructions to adhere to the French policy as outlined at Genoa. They will stick closely, it is stated, to the French contention that the soviet authorities must recognize the principle of respecting foreign-owned private property and the payment of foreign debts.

MINNESOTA AND MAINE PRIMARIES

Sen. Hale of Maine Seeks Renomination by Republicans at Polls Today

Women Candidates Numerous in Minnesota—Kellogg Has Two Opponents

PORTLAND, Me., June 19.—United States Senator Frederick Hale today sought renomination by the republicans at the Maine state primaries. Opposed to him were former Congressman Frank E. Guernsey and former State Senator Howard Davies.

Senator Hale left the campaigning to his friends, confining himself with brief statements to the effect that he is satisfied to stand on the record of his first term and that he had fought to serve the state as a whole.

Mr. Guernsey who was defeated for the nomination six years ago by Senator Fernald, then governor, by 500 votes, has emphasized the geographical issue. He has pointed out that Senators Hale and Fernald both live in the western part of the state and have contended that eastern Maine ought to have a senator. Mr. Davies is known as the labor union candidate.

Governor Percival W. Baxter, republican, was a candidate for renomination and was opposed by John P. Deering and Leon F. Higgins.

Women voted for the first time in a state primary and for the first time they were candidates for various offices. They had previously voted in the state election of September, 1920, and in a special congressional primary in the Third district last March.

In Minnesota
ST. PAUL, Minn., June 19.—Minnesota voters went to the polls today to nominate party candidates for the United States senatorship, congress and state offices.

Mrs. Anna Dickie Olson, of Cloquet, Minn., endorsed by the democratic state convention, is contending with two men for the democratic senatorial nomination and Senator Frank B. Keating, an avowed supporter of the national administration, had two opponents.

In the republican congressional fight in the Third district, Representative Charles F. Davis, a member of the national house since 1904, has active opposition in Reuben Thomsen, of Stillwater, who has the endorsement of the district convention.

Ernest Lundeen of Minneapolis, former congressman, and Richard Titus, Minneapolis, are opposing Senator Kellogg.

Mrs. Lillian Cox Gault, mayor of St. Peter, has no opposition for the democratic congressional nomination in the third district. Margaret M. Kellar, for the republican secretary of state nomination in opposition to Mike Holm, incumbent, and Rustle W. Slagter, for the same office, and Eliza Evans Deming, for auditor, the last two named on the Farmer-Labor ticket, are other women in the election. This year the former non-partisan league candidates were under the banner of the Farmer-Labor party, whose state is without a contest today.

LECTURED ON THE STUDY OF BIRDS

Under the auspices of the children's department of the city library, E. H. Forbush, state ornithologist, gave an interesting and instructive lecture on the study of birds last Saturday morning.

The speaker was introduced by Mayor Brown and to illustrate his topic, Mr. Forbush showed a number of lantern slides, particularly adapted to children.

There were many older people present also to enjoy the talk on the habits, the food and the care of birds. Miss Eloise B. Hills of the children's department was in charge.

John E. Mack, Guardian of Baby Guy Stillman Retained by State

Aided in Fight That Brought Thaw Back From Sherbrooke, Canada

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., June 19.—John E. Mack of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., guardian of Baby Guy Stillman, has been retained to prosecute Walter S. Ward, wealthy baker's son, who he faces a jury on a charge of first degree murder for the slaying of Clarence Peters, former sailor.

Mr. Mack will not prosecute the wealthy young baker because of his appearance as a witness in the case, having testified before the grand jury. Mr. Mack has twice been district attorney of Dutchess county and aided in the fight that brought Harry K. Thaw back from Sherbrooke, Canada.

Special Hearing Today

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., June 19.—Interest in the case of Walter S. Ward, in jail here under indictment for the murder of Clarence Peters, centered today in the special hearing before Supreme Court Justice Morschauser of charges of conspiracy to prevent investigation of the mysterious tragedy.

George S. Ward, father of the prisoner, is in Cleveland and subpoenaed to appear in court to prevent investigation of the mysterious tragedy. If Justice Morschauser finds a conspiracy exists he can issue a warrant compelling Ward's father to appear for examination regarding the blackout.

Ward's father to have caused the pistol battle, resulting in Peters' death.

MICHAEL A. FLEMMING HONORED BY FRIENDS

Michael A. Fleming, formerly of this city, but now holding a very responsible position at the Ractian Arsenal, Metuchen, N. J., who is to be married in this city next Wednesday, was tendered a reception at the Shingha Camp, Tuesday, yesterday by about 60 local young men.

A feature of the affair was the presentation of a purse of gold to the groom-to-be, with John A. Miskell doing the honors. Mr. Miskell's speech was replete with good advice and witty remarks. His effort brought many smiles to the faces of the recipients and the guests. Mr. Fleming responded in a most fitting manner, thanking his former associates and friends for their gift and good wishes.

An informal musical program was carried out. Ernest Gauthier and his jazz band gave several splendid numbers. Others to contribute to the musical program were Edward Donohue, John Hall, Thomas Edmore and William Madden.

An excellent turkey dinner was served under the direction of John Stapleton, assisted by William Walsh and Dennis Cronin. When the party broke up, all pronounced the affair one of the most enjoyable on record and the honored one was showered with wishes for a happy and prosperous married life.

M'CORMICK IMPROVING

Underwent Operation to Regain Youth, at Chicago Hospital

CHICAGO, June 19.—The veil of mystery drawn about an operation performed last Monday upon Harold E. McCormick, chairman of the executive board of the International Harvester Co., remained as impenetrable last night as it was 48 hours before when word of Mr. McCormick's illness first became public.

That Mr. McCormick is making satisfactory progress and that the operation was a success was indicated by a bulletin issued yesterday by Dr. Victor D. Jespinasse, who operated on Mr. McCormick. It read:

"Mr. Harold McCormick is in excellent spirits. His condition from a surgical standpoint is excellent. Pulse 86, temperature 98."

Mr. McCormick remained in seclusion in the wall-off wing of the Wesley Memorial hospital, where the operation was performed. He was being attended by a special corps of nurses and internes, none of whom was allowed to leave the wing.

Members of the family visited the patient during the day, but refused to discuss his condition or comment on widely published reports that Mr. McCormick had been subject of a gland transplantation operation.

Late in the day servants at the McCormick home told inquirers that Mr. McCormick Colby, one of Mr. McCormick's closest friends, had left the city. No confirmation or denial could be obtained of published reports that Mr. McCormick contemplated departing sometime this week for Europe.

Earlier in the day Mr. Colby accompanied by Muriel McCormick and Maudie McCormick, daughters of the Harvester company leader, visited him at the hospital.

ROEHAMPTON, England, June 19.—(By the Associated Press)—England won from Italy in the first match of the Davis cup lawn tennis series between the two countries, played here today. F. Gordon Lowe of England defeated Count Di Robeco of Italy, 6-1, 6-3, 6-1.

Large Classes Graduated

by the beautiful costuming of black bonnets and vari-colored shepherdess dresses. A gymnasium feature by the seventh grade boys, a drill with wands, was next in order, and the uniformity with which the wands moved in unison with the musical accompaniment was remarkable.

"Flow-rote Fair," by the seventh and eighth grade girls and boys, was beautifully carried out, and the Sallor's Hornpipe, danced by the sixth grade boys, in white sailor suits, was a marked feature.

"Swinging" and "Lightly Swaying" were two numbers rendered excellently and exemplified prettily by the little girls of the fourth, fifth and sixth grades. The Indian club drill by the girls and boys of the ninth grade, was very entertaining, as was "The Postillion" sung by the fourth, fifth and sixth grade boys.

Other than the graduation itself, the big feature of the evening was a pretty spectacle and musical melange called "Market Day." This was given by the girls and boys of the seventh and eighth grades, with the girls, in particular, prettily dressed and equipped with baskets of attractive designs filled with flowers or colorful fruits. The chorus selections were good, but the solo and duet features were quite wonderful for a performance by young children.

Pauline Meloy, all in pink, had the first solo, and was followed by two cute little girls, Margaret Enwright and Cynthia Dunas, who added their pretty voices to the song. Eileen Redmond was the orange girl and was costumed in orange and white. Vincent McDermott and Rosella Began were gypsies and sang a couple of truly gypsy songs. The concluding solo was contributed by Marian Martin, in pink and white. The song was accompanied by a pretty movement on the part of the chorus, with the curtain going down on the ensemble in the same formation as in the beginning. A chorus by the ninth grade closed the program of entertainment.

For the final scene of the evening, the presentation of diplomas, the curtain rose on a striking scene. In the exact center of the stage was the very reverend pastor, Fr. Tighe, O.M.I., and behind him and on either side sat the graduates, the 25 boys in dark suits, with white ties, and the girls in pure white. One of Fr. Tighe's assistants read the names of the graduates and as the names of the graduates were read for the class diplomas, each stamped forward to the accompaniment of pronounced applause from the audience and received the coveted honor from the hands of the pastor.

Following the distribution, Fr. Tighe delivered a brief address to the graduates.

SEC. HUGHES MAKES PLEA

Urges New Sense of Civic Responsibility in Matters of International Concern

ANN ARBOR, Mich., June 18.—A plea for a "new sense of civic responsibility in matters of international concern" in the United States as the most certain basis of promoting peace in the world, was made today by Secretary Hughes at the commencement exercises of the University of Michigan. "Sound public opinion was most necessary to support the nation's peaceful diplomatic aims," he said.

"It must grow upon the constant efforts to create suspicion, distrust and hatred," he continued. "There can be no assurance of peace, and of the necessary and just elements which make for peace in a world of hate."

"The chief enemies of peace are those who constantly indulge in the abuse of foreign peoples and their governments, who asperse their motives and visit them with ridicule and insult."

"The principal difficulty in the world is not in the method, or organization, or aims, but with the untruthful, prejudiced and inflammatory discussions in which some of our citizens and certain portions of the press permit themselves to indulge."

"If there is to be less reluctance in diplomacy there must be, if not a greater reluctance, at least, a keener sense of responsibility in the discussion of international questions. Open diplomacy and blatant and indecent utterances will not get us anywhere. The correct of the public mind which will unsparringly condemn and ostracize those who by their base imputations imperil our friendly relations with other nations."

Mr. Hughes dwelt on the difficulty of developing "true public opinion" on matters of foreign policy as the only certain basis of promoting peace in the world, and which only a revolution of opinion could change.

"But in a host of matters," he added, "indeed, in most cases, there is no such criterion. There are situations of continuing importance which are wholly unknown to the general public and which cannot be appreciated without the special information available only to officers of the government."

"The people cannot judge wisely without being informed, and the problem is how to inform them. In dealing with the problem of developing sound opinion, the fundamental consideration must always be that misinformation is the public's worst enemy, more potent far than any conspiracy that can be commonly feared."

Secretary Hughes and Gov. Alex J. Groves of Michigan received degrees of Doctor of Laws, Sir Thomas Lewis, a British surgeon, received the degree of doctor of science. Others receiving degrees included Clarence J. Jones, Charles H. Grosvenor, of Boston, Doctor of Letters and Edwin L. Smith, Doctor of Washington, Doctor of Laws.

WU "STRONG MAN OF CHINA"

PEKING, June 18. (By the Associated Press).—The grasp of Wu Pei-fu on the disturbed situation in China apparently was stronger today than at any time since his defeat of Chang Tiao-lin, rebel super-tu-chun of Manchuria, at the gates of Peking, which first gave him prominence as a prospective "strong man of China."

Dr. Sun Yat Sen, principal opponent of the Peking government, in whose behalf Wu has been exercising his admitted military genius, has fled from Canton, where the southern Chinese government he headed is overthrown, and Chen Chien-Ming, who is favorable to Wu, is in control.

In the north, the leaders of Wu's army on the southern Manchurian front and the head of the forces of Chang Tiao-lin in that region have concluded a definite armistice, according to advice from Chwang-Tao and already Chang's Fenton troops are withdrawing toward Mukden. What an armistice they should under the former armistice he signed with Wu and later broke. The armistice, according to all available information here, resulted from a meeting of the two commanders aboard a British vessel at Chingwangtao last Friday. There is no evidence in fact to indicate that it is being into in making but good faith on Chang's part.

But if fighting is over, or apparently over in the north, Wu still faces a determined and, he said, fanatical enemy in the south. Wu has been appointed Sun holds himself divinely appointed to unite China and this belief adds support in the fact that Sun, at last reports an exile from his own capital and seeking safety aboard a gunboat in Canton river, still is determined to fight.

Five boats under Sun's leadership, have sailed out of Canton. The dispatches report the casualties as few because of the flight of many of the inhabitants.

Sun, moreover, is waiting for the remnants of his defeated army to rally so that he may attempt the recapture of Canton. There has been a battle at Kianfu, 150 miles from Nanchang, capital of the Kiangsi and there have been clashes elsewhere in that province which Sun has been anxious to conquer to supply himself with a means of access to the valley of the Yangtze.

Wu's 22,000 troops at Nanchang are standing fast before Sun's beleaguering forces.

WAS OLDEST FIRE CHIEF.
WAITE, June 18.—Thomas C. Gleason, aged 85 years, believed to be the oldest man in the fire department in point of service in the country, died here yesterday. He was head of the town fire department for more than 41 years. During that period he failed to attend only six fires.

SEES VICTORY IN JOINT STRIKE

Pres. Lewis Predicts Victory for Miners and R. R. Men in Common Strike

Rail Union Chiefs and Miners Head Meet Tomorrow to Discuss Joint Action

CINCINNATI, June 18 (By the Associated Press).—Three factors will win victory for the miners and railroad men in a common strike, it was predicted today by John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, who will meet tomorrow night with rail union chiefs, to consider joint strike action in the threatened rail walkout of approximately one million men.

Joining of forces of these organizations, he said, would first have marked moral influence on labor generally, second, would dislocate the transportation system of the nation, and third, would affect the industrial fabric.

Coincidentally, 10 railroad union presidents made public last night a letter to the railroad labor board, announcing their intention of going through with the strike if one is authorized by the vote of the union's members. R. M. Jewell, head of the railway employees' department, stated that the vote cast so far has been overwhelmingly for a walkout.

Mr. Lewis said all industry is largely a matter of transportation, and approximately one-third of the business of the railroads is hauling coal. "A strike of one million, or more railroads," he continued, "would cause such a dislocation of all industry that the country would soon be prostrated and the railroad and mine corporations would come to terms with their workers."

The rail union men in their letter declared they had done everything to avert a strike, asserted that they would not appeal from the railroad board's decision cutting wages and altering working conditions, and reiterated their statement that the railroad employees under the transportation act are entitled to a "living wage."

NEW INSURANCE ON AUDITORIUM
So far this year new insurance has been written on the Memorial Auditorium to the amount of $350,000, bringing the total on that building up to $710,000. Policies amounting to $1,000 were written in 1921.

Mayor Brown said today that the city hall building is inadequately covered and that in all probability additional insurance will be placed upon it.

Two Killed in Auto Accident
TROY, N. Y., June 18.—Charles McLaughlin of Bennington, Vt., and Charles Hupe, a taxi driver of this city were killed early today on the state road in Raymontown when an automobile in which they were riding collided with a tree and overturned.

Trio Sentenced for Payroll Robbery
BRIDGEPORT, Conn., June 18.—Edward Y. Kiviat, Max Becker and Herman Kraut, of New York, were sentenced in the superior court here today to nine to ten years in jail for the robbery of the Connecticut company payroll on May 24. They changed their plea to guilty to the charge of robbery with violence. The original charge was highway robbery with intent to kill.

State Dept. Acts on Murder of American
WASHINGTON, June 18.—The American embassy at Mexico City and the consulate at Tampico, were instructed today by the state department to request federal and local Mexican officials to make every effort to apprehend the murderers of Warren D. Harvey, an American citizen, who was killed June 17, five miles from Tampico.

REPORT CREWS OF TWO SINKING SHIPS SAVED

KEY WEST, Fla., June 18.—Marine men here were puzzled today by reports telling of the rescue of survivors of the small American freighter Bella and of the 3600-ton tanker De Soto, both described as sinking in widely different localities off the Florida coast.

The survivors from the Bella were taken aboard by the coast guard cutter Tamara, which is en route from Norfolk to the Canal Zone and which reported she would place the shipwrecked sailors ashore at Kingston, Jamaica.

The De Soto's crew was taken off by the Norwegian steamer Borgestad but nothing further was heard during the night.

MORE RETURN TO WORK
MANCHESTER, N. H., June 18.—Amoskeag officials today reported a satisfactory increase in the number of textile workers entering the Wooloolge mill to West Manchester. Union officials admit an increase but say that most of entering for the first time today since the strike are school children employed during the summer months.

aside from the fact that a Chandler leaving car left at the garage last night by a man named Roques of Pittsfield was badly damaged. The roof timbers fell into the interior in such a manner as to imprison 25 of the 28 cars that were housed there. Until the debris is moved, none can be moved.

As no one was in the garage at the time, it is not possible to say whether the building was struck by lightning or whether the weight of accumulated water on the roof caused it to cave. Persons living nearby heard the thunder clap and the crash of the roof almost immediately afterwards.

Streets were turned into rushing rivers, sewers are blocked, cellars all over the city were flooded and reports came to the office of health at city hall that many roofs were letting water into homes.

In the 51 hours that elapsed between 3 a. m. Saturday and 11 a. m. today a precipitation of nearly 4 inches had been registered locally by the locks and canals. This is most unusual and a greater amount than has fallen in such a length of time for many years. The Essex Co. in Lawrence today reported a fall there of 4½ inches and while no definite reports have been received from New Hampshire it is known that the storm extended almost the entire length of the river valley.

It was said at the office of the locks and canals this noon that the rain would cause the river to rise substantially and approach spring freshet conditions.

Indictments also have been returned against the Auto-Ordinance Co. and seven other individuals on the same charge as the result of the seizure at Hoboken last June of the Cosmopolitan line freighter East Side, in the coal bunker of which were found 495 machine guns. The guns were alleged to have been destined for use by the Sinn Féin in Ireland.

The other individuals indicted are: Frank Williams, alias Lawrence De Lacy, alias Lawrence Pierce, who is alleged to have paid for the shipment of guns, and his brother, Fred Williams, alias Edward De Lacy, who is alleged to have been implicated in the purchase of the guns. Both are now believed to be in Ireland.

George Gordon Norke, a salesman of Washington, who is alleged to have placed an order for the guns with the Auto-Ordinance Co., secretary of the Auto-Ordinance Co.

Frank H. Ochsenrath of New York and Washington, who is accused of placing the first order for some of the guns with the Auto-Ordinance Co.

John Cuthbert, a truckman of New York, who is alleged to have carried the guns from the American Railway Express Co. in New York, to his storehouse in the Bronx, for Frank Williams.

A Mr. Brophy, whose first name is unknown to the federal authorities, was alleged to have carried the shipment from Cuthbert's storehouse to the East Side.

The guns were manufactured by the Colt Patent Arm Co. of Hartford, Conn., and are alleged to have been sold by the Auto-Ordinance Co. Their inventor is said to be Gen. John T. Thompson, father of Col. Thompson.

There was considerable mystery about the guns after their seizure and an investigation was started by the United States shipping board at the Department of Justice. Frank Williams claimed ownership of the guns after the seizure. He declared he had purchased a number of guns through the Auto-Ordinance Co. and stored them in a warehouse. He said they had been stolen from the warehouse and asserted he did not know how they got on the ship.

Norke later was arrested and was released in $3000 bail. He is said to have admitted that he sold the guns to a group of strange men.

The technical indictment against the men as a body charged them with conspiracy to set on foot and provide the means for military enterprise to be carried on against the territory of a foreign prince with whom the United States was at peace.

RATIFICATION OF TREATIES

Poincare Wants Treaties Negotiated at Washington Ratified at Once

PARIS, June 18.—(By the Associated Press).—Premier Poincare, it is understood, has decided to press parliament into ratification of the treaties negotiated at the Washington conference, without reservations of any character.

Heard Admiral Lacaze, former minister of marine, who was charged with the task of studying the treaties, especially the naval limitations pact, has reported the premise that in his judgment there will be no pronounced opposition.

One consideration that seems to have weighed strongly with the government in reaching this decision is that it would be well for France to ratify these treaties before Great Britain, with a view to modifying the unfavorable impression produced in America by the French delegation's opposition on some aspects of the naval question.

The French government, it is declared, has determined to decline to accept amendments or reservations, although it seems quite probable that some will be proposed in the chamber of deputies.

WOMAN FOUND DEAD
BRIDGEPORT, Conn., June 18.—Mrs. Lillian Northrup was found dead in her rooming house today, her skull having been crushed, nose broken and eyes blackened. Her body lay on the bed in her room when the door was opened by Charles Nadaw, George Coss, roomer and two policemen.

The medical examiner expressed opinion that the woman had been dead five or six hours.

The current was communicated to the horse, one of those belonging to the Manufacturing Co. and driven by Pullen. The animal, which was feeding while standing in a small pond of water accumulated from the heavy rain, was killed instantly.

Pullen, without knowing what had happened, the animal, went to his assistance and was knocked down and probably killed outright when he stepped into the water. Nutting and Mrs. Moran saw the accident and went to aid Pullen. Both were killed when they entered the water charged with the deadly current of thousands of volts.

Others in the vicinity who began to comprehend the dangerous situation stood guard until word had been passed to the power station and the current switched off. Those who approached the spot afterwards said the electrical charge was felt noticeable and that they felt slight shocks.

FOR A CONSTIPATED CHILD

A small dose of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin will bring quick relief.

MOTHER, when one of the children is constipated are you going to give the first laxative within reach? It is dangerous to do so. Some have been known to rupture the intestines of little children. Don't be beguiled by the outside sugary appearance. Look into the formula. Calomel is seldom necessary; salts, minerals, coal tar, never!

Unlike these, Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is admirable for children, as it is for grown people, too. Mothers have been giving it to children for 30 years. They know it does not gripe, and is free from narcotics. The formula is on every package, and you can see it is vegetable, just a combination of Egyptian Senna and other laxative herbs with pepsin. Use it yourself and you will find it is not necessary to take it every day, nor to increase the dose, and that it is pleasant to the taste. Bottles can be had at all drug stores, and the cost is only about a cent a dose. Have no hesitancy giving it to a baby in arms. It is absolutely safe.

Heavy Damage to Crops Caused by Rain
BIDDEFORD, Me., June 18.—Damage estimated at thousands of dollars on York county farms is resulting from the long continued heavy rains. Recently planted lowland ground will have to be resowed and crops just started are under water. The Saco river is rapidly rising but has not reached the danger point. Manufacturers see a bright side. Their storage reservoirs are being filled so that mills can be run by water power much later than usual thus conserving their limited supply of coal.

Harding Back From Week-End Cruise
WASHINGTON, June 18.—President and Mrs. Harding and their guests on a week-end cruise down the Potomac on the Mayflower returned today to Washington. The president immediately went to the executive offices and started on a long list of appointments including a call by a committee of churchmen to present a memorial on the coal strike and a visit by Sir Auckland Geddes, the British ambassador, to say farewell before leaving Washington to spend the summer at home.

Gov. Small to Offer No Evidence
WAUKEGAN, Ill., June 18.—(By the Associated Press).—Gov. Le Small will offer no evidence in his behalf in his trial for conspiracy G. C. Leforgee, defense counsel announced in court today. The announcement came as a complete surprise. It had been expected that the defense would require two or three weeks.

In the course of the meeting two hearings were held on petitions from the selectmen of the town of Cheshire for the establishing of lines on the River Neck road so-called, and the other on the establishing of lines on all the streets in the vicinity of the Cheshamford Centre square. Selectmen George Day and George Kibby appeared in favor of the petitions and the were not nonconsent. The matter was taken under advisement.

City Engineer Kearney was present at the meeting and at the close of the session he conferred with the commissioners relative to new plans for the First street boulevard. Engineer Kearney showed a plan of the proposed changes, which would set back the line of the proposed boulevard some distance nearer the river. The matter was discussed at length and the commissioners asked for a little more time to study the project.

ing on the ground, alternately being gored by the bull's horns or trampled upon. Rego seized a large stick of wood and beat the brute off. The bull then went over Rego's head and landed on his back. Silva, a nearby but, the bull charged the but, in which the two men had taken refuge, several times, and almost knocked its walls to pieces. After an hour or more it stalked off and Rego was able to carry Silva to the latter's home, where his condition is serious, but not necessarily fatal.

The bull, later captured, escaped again this morning while being led to a slaughter house. A constable and six farmers, armed with rifles and shotguns, were scouring the country for it. One man this morning charged the bull but his gun missed his and he was forced to take to a tree to save his life. For nearly half an hour the bull kept him there, bellowing and pawing the ground beneath him, and then suddenly went off into the neighboring overgrowth.

The forces of farmers was augmented this noon in a determined effort to locate and kill the bull. Considerable alarm is manifest among the inhabitants in the vicinity where the bull is believed to be.

Bull Shot to Death
NEW BEDFORD, June 18.—At 1 p. m., the bull which went on a rampage in Westport after goring its owner, Antonio Silva yesterday, was exterminated in the strip of land owned by one of the possessors of armed farmers. The brute, encircled, lowered its head to the charge and sought to break through. A volley from guns of the farmers dropped him dead in his tracks.

a transfer from the prior revenue account and therefore, not chargeable to this year's tax levy.

In discussing the matter this morning, the mayor said that he had gone over the many city departments, very carefully with the city auditor and his schedule to be presented at the conference is based upon what he considers the most justifiable of the many requests made for more money.

His schedule follows:
Schools $10,000
Isolation hospital 10,000
Auditorium 15,000
Fire 5,000
Building department 15,000
Claims 5,000
Police 3,000
Gold star mothers 2,200
Insurance 5,000
Employment bureau 1,400
Mothers' dependent children 5,000
Cheshamford Street hospital, 2,000
Outdoor relief 1,000
State aid 4,000
Sealer 700
Milk inspector 400
Weighers 100
Moths 100
Workmen's compensation 2,000
City council 1,500
Law 1,200

Total $100,000
Originally it was thought that $20,000 would be necessary to care for the maintenance of the Memorial Auditorium, but the mayor said today that inasmuch as the building would be opened as soon as at first believed $14,500 will be sufficient to carry through the year. The $8500 for the fire department will pay for the motor ladder truck purchased a month or so ago.

Speaking of the buildings department, the mayor said that $15,000 will allow Supt. Connor to return his entire force of men to full time, beginning next Monday. The recommendations of the council committee on public properties, Councilor Appleton chairman, included $25,000 for the buildings department and $25,000 additional for necessary repairs to school buildings, but the mayor thinks that $15,000 for both items all that can be granted.

For the school department, $10,000 is the amount set to be used to care for the additional expense made necessary by the opening of the new high school next fall. The isolation hospital made a request for $15,000, but the mayor has cut this to $10,000.

The street department presents a different problem to the mayor's mind and which will have to be solved before long. Street maintenance is costing about $9000 more each month. It is possible if the original appropriation of $34,000 is to last out the year and the mayor has not been able yet to decide upon the best method procedure. He believes that more money will be necessary and realizes that street maintenance work can be charged up to loans. This probability will be ironed out later.

DAMAGE CAUSED BY RAIN
PORTLAND, Me., June 18.—Rivers and lakes in western Maine had been considerably today as a result of rainfall of five and one-half inches within 48 hours. This almost continuous downpour, one of the greatest for a century, flooded cellars, roads were washed out and caused much damage, although this was not as extensive as the front reports. The water in the mills at Westbrook, were forced shutdown.

The most unique broadcasting station in the country is that of Joseph J. McCann of this city. McCann has devised a contrivance from which he sends out music by radio-telephone. A microphone is attached to an ordinary phonograph diaphragm to reproduce the tones of the device. This leads directly to the "broadcasting station" for transmission by radio.

Bulletin on Premier Lenine's Condition

MOSCOW, June 19.—Premier Lenine's condition is given in a bulletin signed by the German doctor, Felix Klemperer, and other physicians, under date of June 16, as follows: "The symptoms affecting the stomach and bowel tract which continued for 10 days have for the present moment disappeared. All the inner organs are in complete order. Temperature and pulse are normal. The symptoms of disorder in the blood circulation have smoothed down. The patient has left his bed and feels well, but is impatient over the orders of the doctors, who have prescribed inactivity."

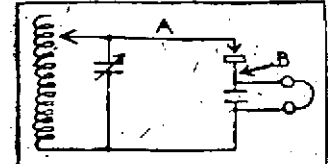

What Makes Crystal Detector "Detect" Radio? Godley Tells

BY PAUL F. GODLEY
America's Foremost Radio Authority
"Unilateral conductivity." What is it?

It is the secret of the crystal set. It is the property that makes of any substance a "detector" of radio signals.

Certain minerals, and a few other materials, possess the characteristic which make them good conductors for current passed through them in one direction only. For example, a piece of carborundum may show a resistance of only two or three ohms to a certain current. When the current is reversed, the resistance to its flow is several hundred, and in some instances, several thousand ohms.

When substances—possessing these

HOOK-UP OF CRYSTAL SET

characteristics are placed in a circuit where an alternating current is flowing, pulses of one polarity pass with ease, while those of the other are wasted and lost. The substance thus becomes known as a "rectifier," since it "rectifies" the alternating current, leaving in its stead, a pulsating, unidirectional current.

Need of Rectifiers

The telephone receivers used in radio work are essentially direct current machines, thus the necessity for a rectifier—or as they are always called—detector, in the radio receiver.

Some minerals used as detectors are so sensitive that the currents fed to

CURRENT TRAVEL ON SURFACE OF WIRE

By PAUL F. GODLEY
America's Foremost Radio Authority
Currents produced in the antenna by radio waves travel only on the surface of the wire.

This is a rather interesting phenomenon, but is easily explained when one takes into consideration the incredible rate at which these currents change their direction.

On the broadcasting wave of 860 meters, the polarity of the current alternates from the positive to the negative approximately 83,000 times each second.

This rate of change is so rapid that the current has no time to penetrate the copper conductor—the result is this "skin effect."

This presents a considerable problem to radio engineers handling great energies, such as those employed in the high power trans-Atlantic stations. In order to handle this current, large conductors must be used. Since radio currents travel on, or very near, the surface, the conductors must be very large in area.

The wires are usually compounded of a great number of fine wires, each insulated from the other. The whole is then woven into a cable which usually has a hemp rope core. These cables, which may be the size of one's wrist, are then spiraled around a much larger wooden core. In this form they serve as concentrated tuning inductances must be used.

Research work carried on by British engineers recently seems to indicate that the coating of oxide, which any conductor acquires after being subjected to the weather, greatly increases the resistance of an antenna. Because of the small penetration of the current, a goodly portion is actually carried by the oxide coating, which is a comparatively poor conductor.

Increased Resistance
Actual results obtained during these experiments showed an increase of resistance in these antenna conductors as great as 60 per cent in a period of a few weeks. In an antenna consisting of an enameled copper wire the resistance remained constant during the same period.

Many of the more advanced amateurs have adopted enameled wire for their antenna. Choosing a No. 22 or 24 wire, they stretch several lengths of it across a vacant lot, fasten it all in the chuck of a hand-drill, and then twist until a cable is formed. Resort to this expedient is usually desirable only where the antenna is to be used for transmitting purposes.

The Majority of Men

Who graduate from high school and college follow a business career, but many of them go about it wrongly. They start without proper equipment and are out-distanced by those who have fitted themselves to do some one thing particularly well. This is the age of the specialist. The apprenticeship system is too slow for the modern pace in business.

The most important thing to consider is not the particular line of business you desire to enter, but whether or not you are qualified for anything more than the duties of an office boy. Academic knowledge alone will not suffice. It must be supplemented with specialized training.

The most notable successes in business have been made by men who specialized in some one branch of business (administration, and the best positions in business are filled by department heads who are specialists in their line. Business is so highly organized and complex that it is folly for one to attempt to become proficient in all branches of business administration.

Decide whether you prefer the merchandising end of business (buying, advertising and selling), or the financial end (credit, financial and accounting). The latter offers excellent opportunities for men properly trained for the duties of office manager, cost accountant, auditor, credit manager, assistant treasurer, or treasurer.

The Bentley School of Accounting and Finance is the largest professional school of college grade in the United States that is devoted exclusively to training men for such positions as those just mentioned, and for public accounting practice. The enrollment of over 2100 students attests its popularity.

To Be Bentley-Trained Carries Prestige in Business.

Day courses require two years for completion of prescribed courses in accounting, business law, business English, economics, corporation finance, commercial and bank credits, and business mathematics. Yearly tuition $190, or $200 if paid in monthly installments of $20 each.

Evening courses require four years. Yearly tuition $51, payable in monthly installments of $5 each.

Students range in age from 18 to 45.

Send for our catalogue; it will interest you. State whether interested in day or evening courses.

Berton Braley's Daily Poem

There's the lapping of the water on a white and sandy beach,
There's the sighing of the breezes in the trees,
There's the song of frogs in chorus, there's the night owl's sudden screech,
But I know a music sweeter far than these;
For there's nothing half so dulcet to a hungry camping clan
As the sizzle of the bacon in the pan!

Though the "chunkin" of a paddle is a music good to hear,
It's a harmony that's wearisome to make;
You may slip through pleasant waters, that are marvelously clear
But the exercise will make your muscles ache;
So the sound of dipping paddles never could compare, or can,
With the sizzle of the bacon in the pan!

When the twilight shades have fallen and the fire is burning bright
And you've finished with your travel for the day,
And you're waiting for your dinner with an outdoor appetite,
That's the time the bacon-music comes in play;
It's a melody with magic to assuage the inner man,
Is the sizzle of the bacon in the pan!

Dawn or twilight, breakfast, dinner, it's a melody sublime,
It's a harmony the dullest can enjoy,
And it makes your palate tinkle and your heart beat faster time
As your ears and nostrils warn you, "Food aboy!"
It's the pinnacle of music to the true-blue nature fan,
Is the sizzle of the bacon in the pan,
Oh, man!
The bacon sizzling early in the pan!

Because they save you money in saving the ice and keeping the food better.

They do this because they are built of white pine, which is a non-conductor of heat. They are built with double walls—a box within a box—with dead air spaces between, and well insulated. GOLDEN TREASURE, LOST 300 YEARS, LOCATED PENETANGUISHEN, Ont., June 18.—The golden treasures of the Jesuits, lost for 300 years, have been located, according to Capt. Robert Carson, in charge of the hunt for the iron chest beneath the Wye river. The box, lost when the black frocked missionaries fled down the Wye, rests on the edge of the great hole dredged in the bottom of the river. Capt. Carson said, and was found during the second of his descents into the depths of the river. He said that he believed the chest, with its golden altar vessels and manuscripts telling of the early history of Canada, would be brought to the surface within a few hours.

For a marked advancement in penmanship the following received the Palmer diploma: Henry Gillbride, Alice Carroll, Margaret Holmes, Anna Leahy, Margaret Leahy, Isabelle Montgomery, Ruth Tobin, and Helen Langan. The latter are all pupils of the seventh grade.

The exercises were concluded with Solemn Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament celebrated by Rev. Francis J. Mullin, assisted by Rev. James F. Lynch as deacon and Rev. Thomas J. Heagney as subdeacon.

SACRED HEART SCHOOL

The annual graduation and closing exercises of the Sacred Heart school were held last night in the school hall on Moore street, at 7:30 o'clock. The spacious hall, decorated for the occasion, was filled to overflowing with an attentive and appreciative audience of parents and friends of the boy and girl graduates.

The exercises opened with the awarding of diplomas to 47 grammar school graduates, the presentation being made by the pastor, Rev. John P. Flynn, O.M.I.

The program then continued with a chorus, "Hymn to the Sacred Heart," the salutatory, "A Tribute to Our Flag," and "A Spanish Fantasy." These were given by the pupils of the grammar school.

The high school department then presented a humorous playlet entitled "Doromifasolastin's Opera," which brought forth several rounds of applause.

Following the "Opera," the junior high school diplomas were presented to the 47 successful graduates.

One of the features of the evening was the awarding of prizes. The premium for sewing was awarded to Agnes Hatch. The prize, which was donated by Miss Smith, was open to the pupils of the sixth grade only.

A gold pen, donated by Dr. J. B. O'Connor and drawn for by the pupils of the seventh grade who received American Penman diplomas for excellence in penmanship, was won by Miss Jessica McCaffrey.

In conclusion, the young graduates were addressed by Rev. John P. Flynn, O.M.I., who took occasion to thank the parents for the loyalty and co-operation displayed by them during the year just completed and hoped that this same spirit of good will would continue in the furtherance of the education of the pupils. He explained that the atmosphere of a Catholic school and the ideals and principles taught there were the foundations of character, truth and morals. The Catholic school teaches its pupils to love their parents and show their gratitude to them for making the day of graduation a possibility. He further explained that the signs of the times show it to be impossible to shape the morality of man without a knowledge of God. "The time is not one," he said, "of boasting of the achievements of the past."

The past records speak volumes for the success attained by the legion of graduates who have gone forth from this school with a fundamental knowledge of the sacredness of human and divine authority, and what better guarantee of good citizenship than this?

The complete program and list of graduates follow:

MRS. WEST IS OVERJOYED BY HER RECOVERY

Boston Woman Says She Felt Wonderful Change Before She Had Finished First Bottle of Tanlac

"Tanalac has meant so much to me that I cannot praise it enough. Before I took it I was so run down and weak I could not even leave the house to do my shopping. My stomach was all out of order and I just suffered agonies from indigestion. I would get so short of breath and have such severe pains from the gas in my stomach that I would sit down and cry. I was almost a nervous wreck and sleep was next to impossible for me."

Even before I finished my first bottle of Tanlac I felt a wonderful change over me. And by the time I finished my fourth bottle of Tanlac my troubles had all left me. My health and strength have been fully restored and I have gained considerable weight, besides. There has never been a time in my life when I enjoyed better health and the credit all belongs to Tanlac."

The above statement was made recently by Mrs. Mary West, a highly esteemed resident of 110 Camden street, Boston, Mass.

Tanalac is sold by all good druggists.

How to Play Baseball

Shortstop Must Move Fast, Says Evans

BY BILLY EVANS

Editor of N. E. A. Service.

While second base is a most important position, yet it has always seemed to me that shortstop is the most difficult position of all.

The duties of the shortstop are many and varied. He must be able to go to his right or left on hard hit balls, a must for the outfielder on all short fly balls to dead left or right center, which he believes cannot be handled by the outfielder.

On certain plays he must be prepared to cover second or third. On other plays he must back up either second or third baseman. He must come to the assistance of the pitcher on slow hit balls just out of the pitcher's reach.

No Limit on Field

On safe hits to left or center field he must go out to handle the relay when it is possible that plays may come up at third of the plate. There must be no limit on the territory a shortstop must cover.

When balls are merely knocked down by the third baseman it is up to the shortstop to recover them. If the batsman is a right field hitter, the shortstop is nearly as much a runner. It is the duty of the pitcher at such times to go pitch to the batter so that the chances to hit to right field will be further increased.

When the infield gets set for a certain batter, the delivery of the proper ball by the pitcher has nearly as much to do with the direction the ball will be hit as the tendency of the batter. Who Covers? If the batter is known as a left field hitter, and the pitcher works on him properly, the second baseman should always cover on a throw from the catcher. In case of such a shift is apparent. If second baseman covered on a batter known as a right field hitter, he would leave all the territory between first and second open for him to hit through. Similarly if the shortstop covered on a batter known as a left fielder, he would leave all the territory between second and third vacant.

The shortstop must be a fast runner.

He must be able to handle the relay when it is possible that plays may come up at third of the plate. There must be no limit on the territory a shortstop must cover.

ST. LOUIS BROWNS INCREASE LEAD

Now Game and a Half Ahead

of Yankees—Home Runs

by Williams and Sisler

Yankees Drop Seventh

Straight—St. Louis' Cardinals Halt Giants

NEW YORK, June 19.—Led by their slugging ace, George Sisler and Ken Williams, the St. Louis Browns have, for the moment at least, shaken themselves free of the doldrums in the American League. The team, which had been losing to the Athletics and the Yankees dropped their seventh straight in losing to Cleveland, now lead by game and a half Williams, slugging his 15th home run, besides a triple, and Sisler registered a double and a homer.

The Hot Host lasted less than an inning against the slugging Indians and his mates were silenced by Cleveland's speedy men for a half hour.

The Yankees, this, led the onslaught with a brace of doubles and a single.

The Browns, who had won two games scheduled in the National League, but lost in the one-day game, now have a lead of 10-7.

The Cardinals, who had been losing to the Pirates blanked Brooklyn, 2-0, in six innings. The result cut the lead of the Giants to one-half game.

MORVICH TO APPEAR IN $50,000 RACE

NEW YORK, June 19.—Morvich, no longer, "the unbeaten," was expected to leave in his special car today for Louisville, Ky. There, in a special $50,000 race next Saturday against the cream of the three-year-old thoroughbreds, he will seek to regain the prestige he lost when he was beaten badly by Harry Payne Whitney's Whiskaway, in the Carillon stakes, at Aqueduct last Saturday.

Whiskaway, with an advantage of 15 pounds over Morvich in the weights, never was threatened after taking the lead at the start and won pulled up with a margin of eight lengths in the remarkably fast time of 1:36 3-5.

The mile, J. S. Cadden's French bred colt, a pair third, pulled up lame and was found to have a split front foot, which will prevent him from competing at Aqueduct.

Morvich, who will not run for some time, it is said. The handicap in weights undoubtedly had its effect in the showing of the colt, but it would have taken more than a superhero to match the pace Whiskaway set from the barrier to finish. Clocking 45 1-2 seconds, the colt was a second faster than the American record for this distance, 48 1-2 seconds, and finished at the start and won pulled up with a margin of eight lengths in the remarkably fast time of 1:36 3-5, set by Audacious.

The game scheduled for yesterday between the St. Louis Browns and the St. Louis Cardinals was postponed, owing to the rain. This game will be played on the Woodward avenue grounds next Sunday afternoon.

The Lishon Juniors claim the 15-16 year old championship of the city and are going to play the Cardinals, Americans and Nationals to a game anywhere and any time.

Thursday marked the opening of the Vermont commencement. The University of Vermont, on June 18th, the commencement of Vermont conferred the honorary degrees of Doctor of Divinity upon the Rev. George Williams, of the Episcopal diocese of Maryland, and of Doctor of Engineering upon Major General Russell M. Patrick, chief of the air service. Other degrees conferred were:

Doctor of Laws: Henry Waldo Clark, New York, and Charles Winfield Waterman, lawyer, Denver.

Doctor of Letters: Dorothy Canfield Fisher, author, Arlington, Vt., and Lawrence Fraser Abbott, editor, New York.

BRITISH GOLF TOURNEY

SANDWICH, England, June 19.—(By the Associated Press) Qualifying play in the British open golf championship tournament was started under ideal weather conditions.

More than 200 competitors started with the hope of qualifying in this, the greatest golfing event of the year. The 80 turning in the lowest cards for today's and tomorrow's medal play will be eligible for the match play on Thursday and Friday.

Jock Hutchison, the American who won the open last year, is defending his title and is expected to be supported by two other strong players, Jim Barnes and Walter Hagen.

BASEBALL GAME POSTPONED

Because of the inclement weather the baseball game between the Lynn fire department team and the Second Shift team of the local department, which was scheduled to be played in East Lynn this afternoon, was postponed until next Thursday afternoon.

Shutout for First Time in 238 Games

LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 19.—Pitcher Callop's shutout of Minneapolis of the American association in the second game of a double header with Louisville marked the first time in 238 consecutive games that that club had been blanked. The last shutout inflicted on Minneapolis was in September, 1920. Ben Tincup, who won the first game yesterday, was the pitcher on that occasion.

NEW YORK, June 19.—The Dublin newspapers treat the election results thus far recorded as conclusive evidence that the voters support the Anglo-Irish treaty.

SEVERAL KILLED AT PORTUGUESE CELEBRATION

LISBON, June 19.—Several persons were killed and about 30 injured by an explosion on a vessel in the Tagus river last night during a fireworks display in celebration of the successful completion of the transatlantic flight by the Portuguese naval aviators.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE DISBARMENT OF TUFTS DIRECTORS MEET ORDERED BY COURT

BOSTON, June 19.—Supreme Court Justice Crosby today ordered the disbarment of Nathan A. Tufts, former district attorney of Middlesex county. The proceedings were uncontested.

The court removed from the district attorney's list, fell by order of the court after an extended hearing on charges of misconduct in office preferred by Attorney General J. Weston Allen.

At a hearing before Justice Crosby, two weeks ago, counsel for Mr. Tufts and for the Middlesex Bar association, the petitioner for his disbarment, agreed that the evidence in Tufts' trial before the supreme court should apply in the disbarment proceedings.

The court based its decision upon a case which figured in Tufts' trial wherein it was alleged that he entered into a conspiracy to secure the commission of a crime by one Stearns that a divorce might be secured. A memorandum by Judge Crosby said that the case was imprudent in the eyes of the court and in violation of his oath as an attorney.

COMMENCEMENT WEEK AT HARVARD

CAMBRIDGE, June 19.—The festivities of commencement week at Harvard university got under way today, with the annual Phi Beta Kappa exercises and the announcement of winners of prizes and academic distinction in Harvard college as outstanding events on the day's program.

The orator at the literary exercises of the Phi Beta Kappa meeting was Prof. William Morris Davis. The poet was Rachel Lindsay of Springfield, Ill.

FOUR BOYS RESCUED

Were Buried When Sand Bank Caved in at

Pittsfield

PITTSFIELD, June 19.—Four boys buried when a sand bank caved in here yesterday, were rescued by neighbors and police officers after several minutes' hard work. All were taken to a hospital, where it was said they probably would recover.

The boys, Edward Sinclair, Samuel Somerville, Nicholas Pennell and Jacob Melowitz, ranging in age from 10 to 12 years, had been playing in their favorite haunt, a hut built in the side of the sand bank, loosened by the heavy rain, a large part of the bank gave way and covered the hut.

A woman living nearby saw the sand pile and summoned help. After the rescue, it was found that the Pennell boy was severely injured about the back and the Sinclair boy had a head wound, apparently caused by the shovel used by one of the rescue party.

JUSTICE TAFT WARMLY GREETED AT LONDON

LONDON, June 19. (By the Associated Press).—William Howard Taft, chief justice of the United States, and party arrived at the Euston station at 10:30 o'clock last night, and were greeted heartily by a large gathering of British and American ambassadors.

The American ambassador, Mr. Harvey, was among those at the station.

Mr. Taft shook hands warmly with many friends on the platform and said he was glad to be in London.

He posed good naturedly for the camera men, first with the ambassador and then with Mrs. Harvey and Mrs. Taft. To the injunction "look pleasant," the former president replied with much laughter: "That's the easiest thing I do."

Allusions were made to his long absence and Mr. Taft explained, "I lived in London in 1883, when I was a bachelor; again in 1886, when I was a honeymooner; and the third time in 1888."

Henry Wickham Steel, editor of the Times, who was among the party of English prelates, thereupon said: "You ought to be a large gathering of yourself."

Mr. Taft responded: "I shall stay in London for 34 years," to which Mr. Taft responded: "Well, you see, I made three trips around the world, and my official duties at home were so engrossing that I was unable to come before."

In answer to do here, he said: "I very much enjoy judicial life. I have come here to learn anew the principles of English common law which I acquired in my youth, and which I hope will be applied with increasing advantage in the United States."

Mr. and Mrs. Taft will be the guests of the ambassador and Mrs. Harvey during their stay in London.

FOUR MEN KILLED ON GRADE CROSSING

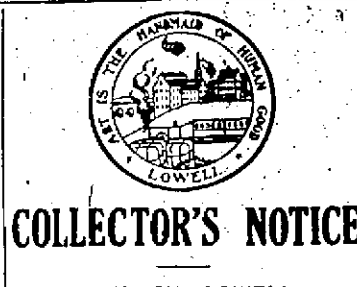

PEABODY, June 19.—Four men were killed and two injured when a freight train struck their automobile at a crossing of the Boston & Maine railroad in West Peabody, yesterday.

The dead were Joseph McCarthy, William Buckley, Joseph Connelly and Thomas Hall, all of the West Roxbury district of Boston.

Leonard Copparrath and Charles Lewis, also of West Roxbury, were injured. The men were on their way home from Nahant.

HUNDREDS SEE YOUTH DROWN

BOSTON, June 19.—John H. Lempier, aged 17 years, of Nahant, was drowned yesterday in the sight of hundreds of persons who watched him as he was going to the rescue of two small boys on a raft, Allied and sank. The boys were saved by others.
